"Our Way"

Give us any chance, we'll take it.
Give us any rule, we'll break it.
We're going to make our dreams come true.
Doing it our way.

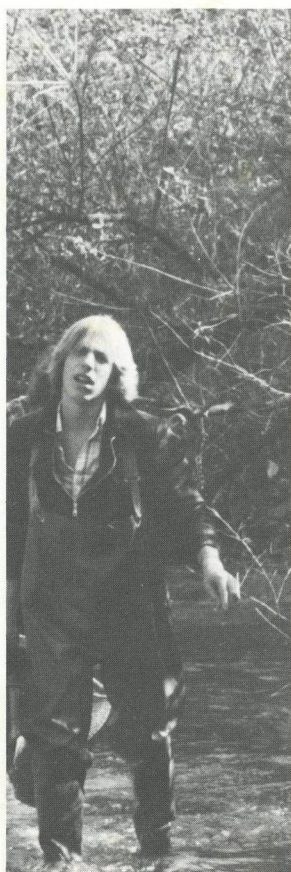

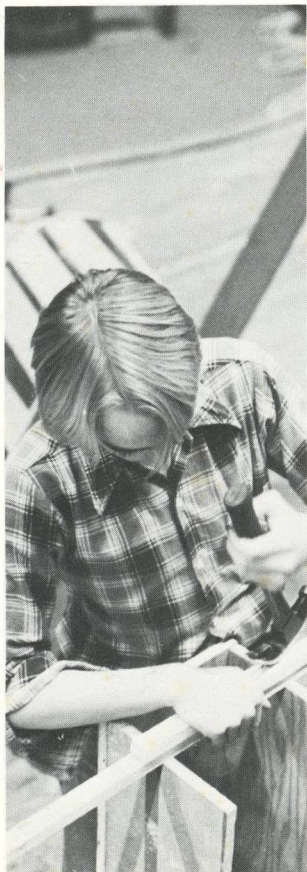

Nothing's gonna turn us back now,
Straight ahead and on the track now.
We're gonna make our dreams come true.
Doing it our way.

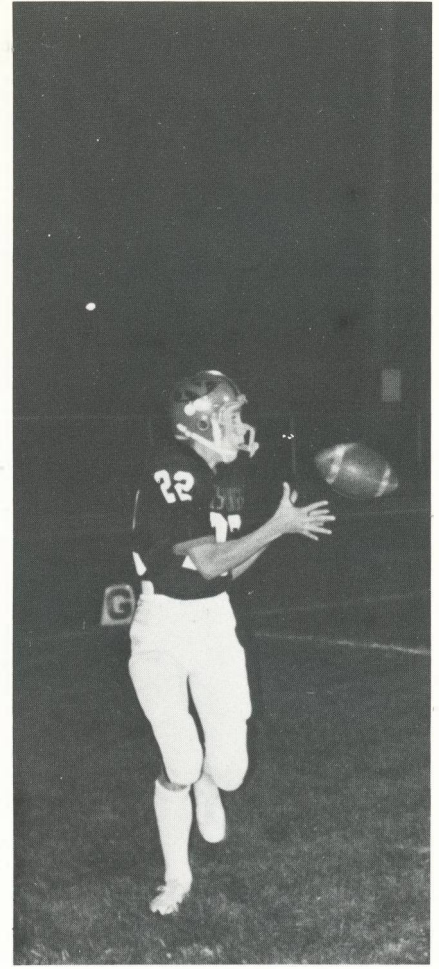

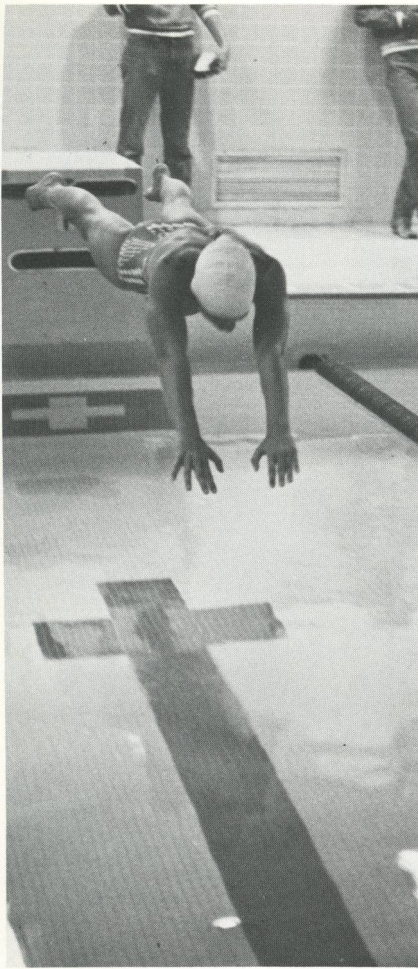

There is nothing we won't try,
Never heard the word, "impossible."
This time there's no stopping us,
We're gonna do it.

On your mark, get set, and go now.
Got a dream and we just know now.
We're gonna make that dream come true.
And we'll do it our way, yes, our way,
Make all our dreams come true ...

... for me and you.

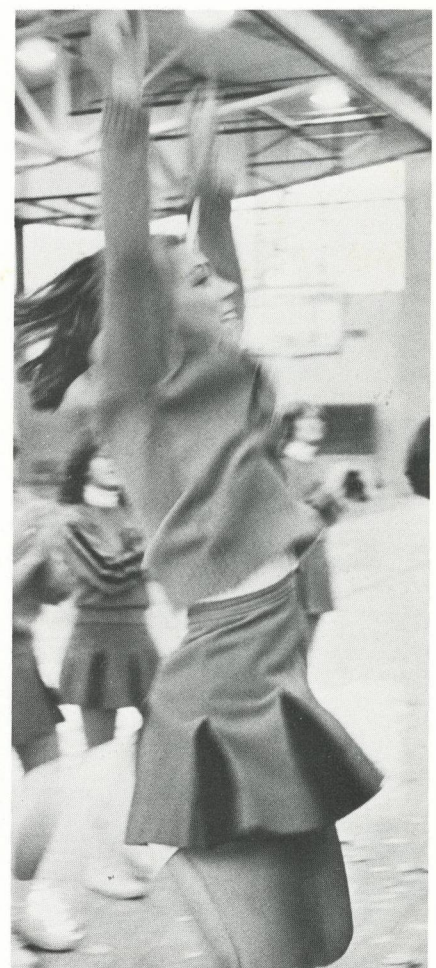

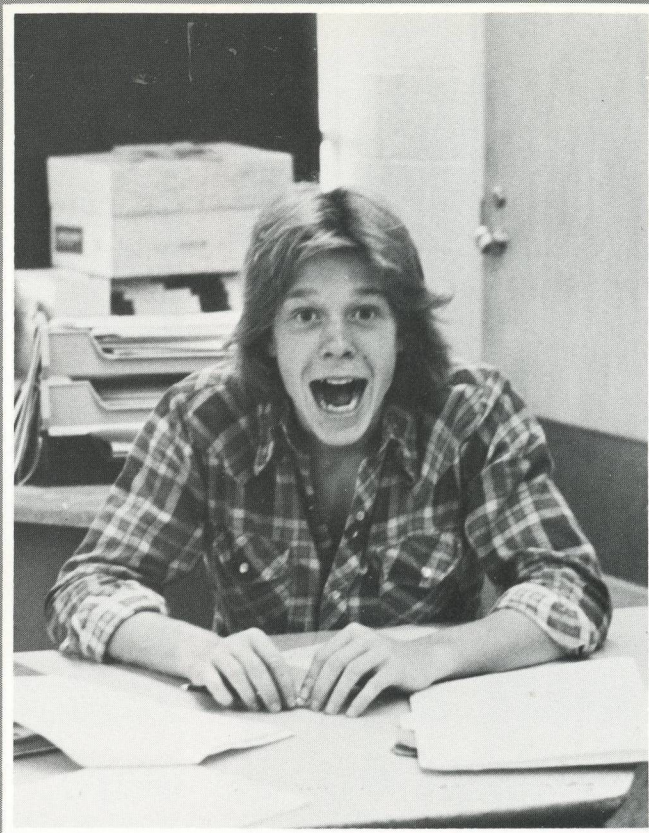

There is nothing we won't try.

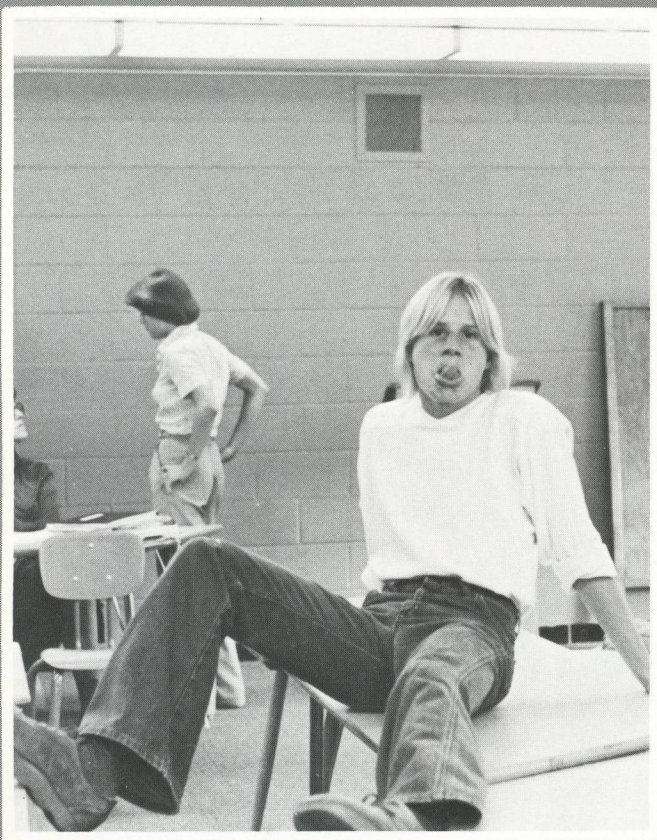

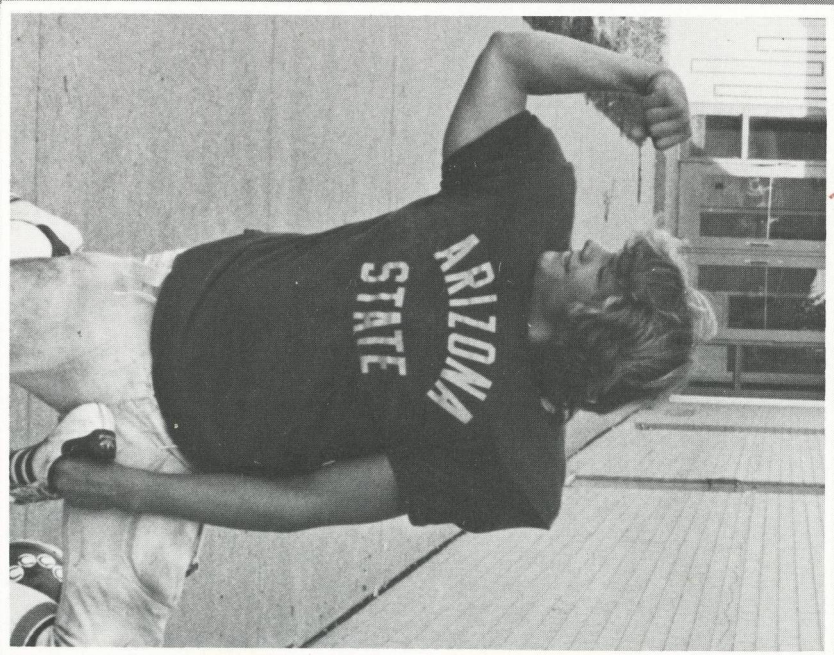

Never heard the word, "Impossible."

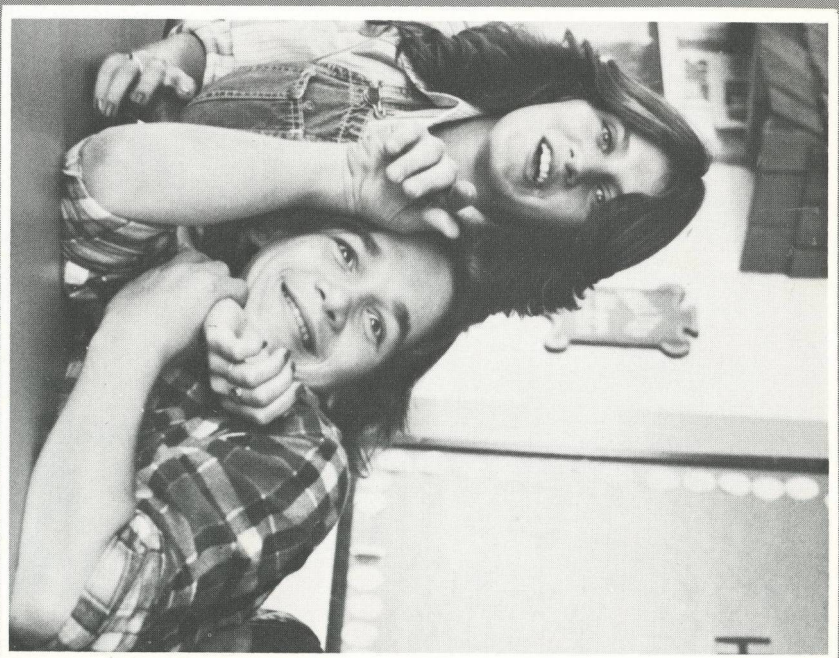

Give us any chance, we'll take it.

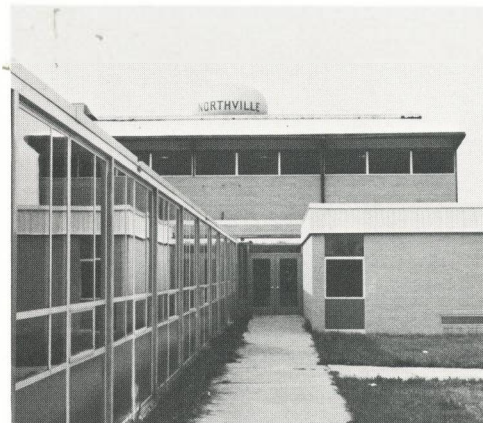

Give us any rule, we'll break it.

so hard to believe
after four long years
I have finally reached the end of the line. Watch out world we come! Seriously now, you're a great guy and a really good friend.
Best of luck to you at M.S.U.
(Oakland Community's better but who cares)
Take care and keep in touch.
Love,
Arlene "79"

Working Hard, Playing Hard . . .

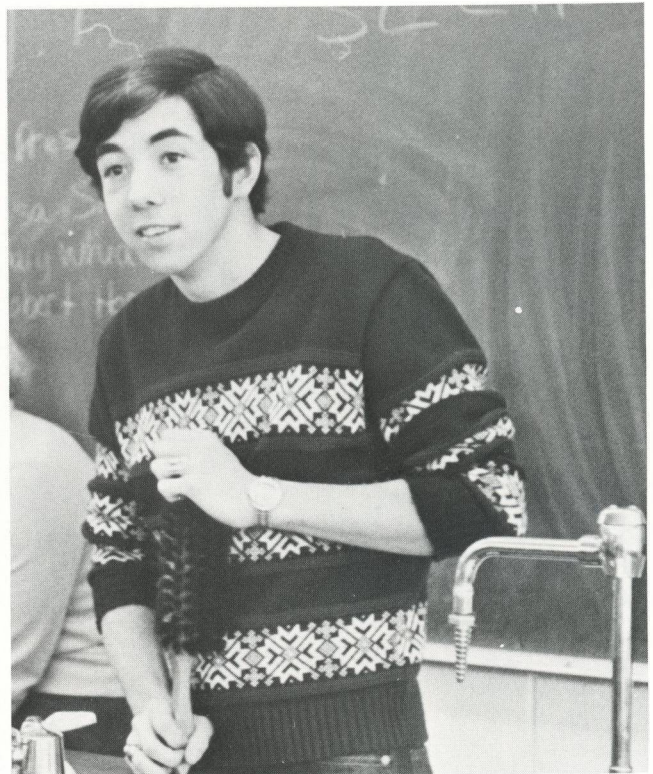

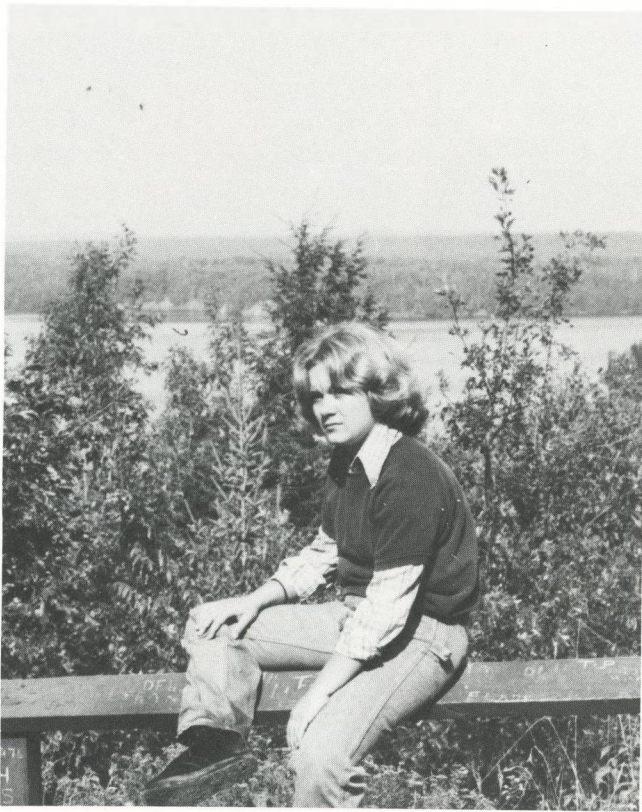

Toga, Toga!

"Hey, I'm a Harvard kind of guy."

And the answer is

A moment of thought.

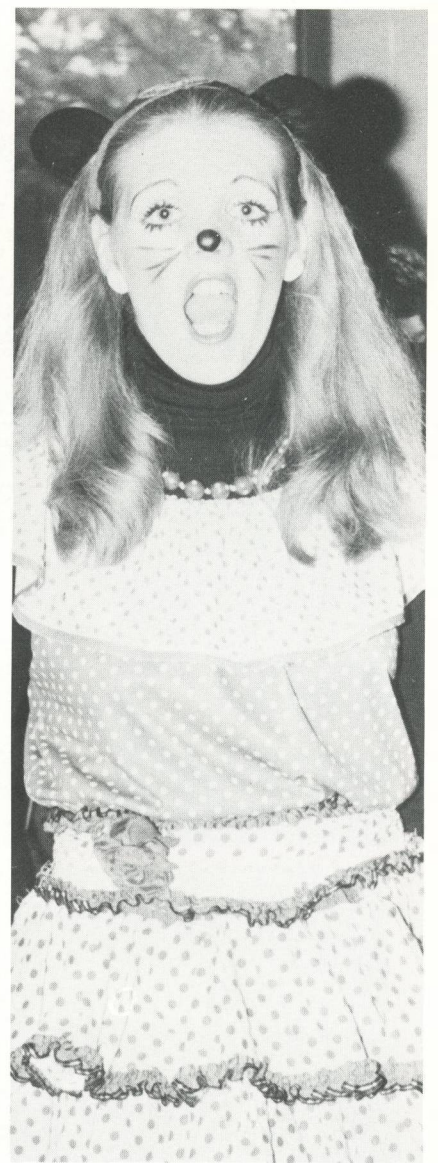

The ALF plays ham for the day.

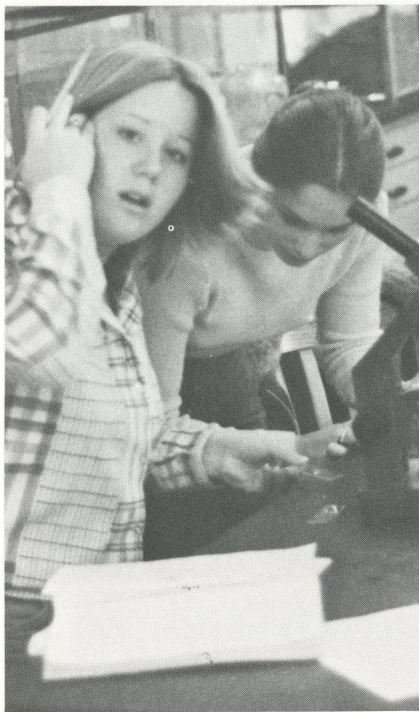

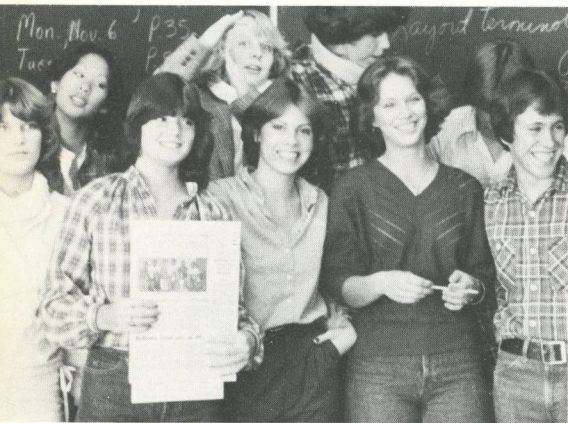

"Go jump in a lake!"

Busy day, busy people.

Class Will

I, Paul Adams, being of sound mind and body-despite popular belief-hereby bequeath: To Dan, a sense of direction; To Lori, a years supply of No-doz; To Linda, a fabulous smile. On the other side of the fence: To Kent, instant attachment tire chains; Def receives "A Guide to Army Life;" To Hanger, "The Great Air Force;" To Elk, 5 tubes of Bryllcream; To Mike, "Basic Electronics;" Toni H shall receive a pair of Elevator shoes. Most of all, to Ms. Snodgrass, "How to deal with Irate students;" To her students, "How to deal with Irate teachers" To Arlene, 1 pair of brass knuckles. To Tammy, the world on a silver platter.

I, Tracy Ade, do hereby will the following: Sue S. a new pair of overalls, a clean Kensington Lake and a Sherlock for her Watson; Sharon an electric horse in Lansing, cooked vegetables and a bike to ride to McDonalds on; Terri one more kiss, a flying monkey and another trip to Mowtown; Sue M. BFF, Sparty, A Mustang II and 1/2 of Billy Joel; Lisa S. The other 1/2 of Billy Joel, Sparty and a baseball bat; Laura and Sally a lesson on how to drive a stick shift and a free trip to a spook house; Kent one more fling before Sue finds out; Rob the house to himself when I leave; Ian the one thing he likes best about me.

I, Steve Alföldy, better known as the Alf, do hereby bequeath the following: To Dave Herbel, a few more notches on your super stud t-shirt (Be selective). To Don Borthwick, a box of white owl cigars for those special occasions, we're gonna getcha! To Kelly Mikton, an everlasting supply of punch and remember it doesn't pay to stack the deck. To Pete June, the ability to pick teams as good as I can. You'll never be as good as me but keep trying, anyway. To Luigi Folino, a brand new set of spoke wheel covers, and the ability to name that beer in 2 notes. To Rob Holloway, a new car with a built-in liquor cabinet because that dirty, rusty old tailgate makes a lousy bar. To Chris Eden, a wind-up Bob Ufer doll (Huckelby deep, Davis close . . .) To John Marzonie, that big front page cover story I never got around to writing, I'm sure you'll be getting one sooner or later, anyway. And to Amy Antuna, years and years of happiness with Jeff.

I, Sharon Alspaugh, of bizarre mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: To Tracy A., a day to peddle our way to McDonalds, and a nice porch to collapse on. Also a green corvet to go with my blue Nova(we'll race), and an electric house in Lansing or Iowa where we can invisibly cook vegetables. To Laura E., a day with B.B. or a dough fight with him; It's your choice. Also, a soap opera of your own and a car so you'll never have to walk again. To Sally P., a soft, cuddly sleeping bag and partnership in Laura's soap opera. To Jenny G., someone to sing the Star Spangled Banner with; I resign. To John Z., a dance-a-thon with a partner who doesn't sleep. To the future pom-pom girls, a LOT of luck!

I, Mike Anderson, being of DENOTS mind and body leave the following: Margaret Trudeau, I leave a U.S. passport so you can remain around longer. To Linda and Margaret, I leave a hard job. To Linda, a pen so she can cross her name out in the jail at Northville Township. To Mike McNamara, a lawyer and a fake I.D. so he is always 16 and never has to go to real court. To Spil, a years supply of afro apparatus. To Sprat, a razor and another senior year so he can remember at least one. To Sprat and Ekim, their own apple orchard and a trash can company so they don't have to borrow other peoples. To Angela and Spil a map so next time they will find me in the bushes.

I, Matt Baker, being of sound body and mind will to the following: To Swede and Mike Evans, a wild Friday night. To Rick Weeker, an everlasting bag. To Ludwick, a car that is fast(quick car, Dan, you almost know how to drive). To the SHOP RATS, some maturity. To Rybka, the Red Neck, some moonshine. To the 78 football team, some Visine. And to the school and administrators, so long suckers. S. U. I. C.

I, Terri Baker, being of sound mind and body do hereby will the following: Tammy and Sue, my trig partners, good luck. Linda and Diana another race home(you might win). Theresa, a fellow lover of those Macho men(Good luck). Sue, a fribble, S.M.H. and "A.L.S.L." L". Lori, more great SHELF jokes, "lights forever" and Holly, a race-track and some S.T.P. Bob, some oars for "Boat" and a new blinker (HORN?) Sir Lester, another R-rated movie; we'll make it yet(remember a little confidence goes a long way). Sheryl-It's been great. Remember: "Everybody needs a . . . ? Yours truly, Half-Baked.

I, The Beab, being of incredibly crafty mind and much-sought-after body, leave the following . . . To Addias-a lifetime supply of apples and a free weekend; Tom Nulty-command of the Space Cadets; Drew Farkas-my ability to flash the entire city of Quebec; Rich Smith- an inflatable girl; Willie- a Vitamin E party; Sue Harris- normal hair; Pauline-another reply to your "Kiss Me, I'm Greek" patch; Amos- a bath; Dave Massel- the aura of Deja' Vu.; Gruel Kidd-a one-way ticket to Siberia; John Light-a book containing the 4,863,496 practical jokes we played on numerous direlects and to Sal-Herb's herbs.

I, Karen Beck, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: To Heidi Carter, a curling iron that curls her hair just right and the memories of our friendship. To Bill Bailey, a dozen typing erasers. To Randy, a dozen pens and pencils so that he has one to write with everyday. To Mike, pens and paper to his hearts desire. To Kevin, better luck on Mr. T's test and having paper to take notes. Remember all the good times we had in Mr. T's class. To Mrs. Juday, a tape recording saying, "Can I help you?" To Renee, have fun your last years at NHS and good luck in the future. To J.H., better luck on your algebra tests(if you attempt it again). To Mary Hartmann, a dozen burnies, 6" pack of Kool-aid and orange pop(JOKE), and more buckets to throw more water over the railing at 3:00 in the morning. To S.H., better luck with the guys. To Eric, some more rumors to spread around. To Dave, lots of luck in the future. To P.S., memories of what we shared together, up north, etc. To everyone who is still stuck at the high school for a few years yet, good luck with D.C., M.R., and D.A.

I, Debbie Belkowski, being of air-headed mind and short body, will to Mr. "E" one king-size girdle or a life guards body (don't you wish). To Judy King, one free date with every guy in the H.S. To Jana, a night out with the guy from Northwood. To Mr. Townsley, one link of polish Kielbasa. To Brian Pratt, someone else to call Belinda. To Brenda Brown, the privilege to date before she's 16(anyone want her?) To Mr. Satarino, another senior to cause as many problems as I do. And last but not least, to Karolee, my shortness as a Senior, my 4" spikes, and my ability to buy before the age of 18 and to get bombed without getting sick. Also, to the present juniors, all the privileges of being a Senior.

I, Robynn C. Bell, being of unsound mind and even worse body do hereby will to my fellow friends and underclassmen. To Connie L. I will a six pack of beer(not Busch) every Monday night for the rest of her life, a new memory, for she doesn't have one (remember the show and the keys, Connie) Also, I will her an Alice Cooper look-a-like to do whatever she wants with. To Tammi L. I will a muzzle, so I can get a word in edgewise. Also, a second chance with Al and Ralph, both the same person, but going or coming by different names and a radio that only plays 3 Times a Lady by the Commodores so hopefully she'll get sick of it. To Chris M.(alias: Cricket), three lessons on how to do correct cricket calls and a lifetime supply of elevator shoes so she won't have to keep looking up at the world. To Debbie W. I will 12 different shades of paper for all her different moods, and a marriage certificate with her and Al's name on it. To Tim B. a pout for he is always smiling and the ability not to be so shy around people. To Tony Pap, a lifetime supply of coffee so he won't have to go to the hangout (Friendlys). To Mike G., some Prell Concentrate for his hair(Just kidding, Mike). To Beave(Mark), I leave a lifetime supply of cigarettes so he doesn't have to borrow them all the time. To Brian I will my backseat on the way down to Friendlys for coffee. To Pam I will the ability to have a good time. To David W. some M&M's so he doesn't eat ours. To Dave Herbel, the ability to keep his big mouth shut. To Sheryl Wissman, the best of luck in years to come. To Mary K B. I will Todd Rundren and mountain climbing lessons for a year. To Rick B. I give 5 more years in the great Amerman Grade School for our childhood went so fast. To Nancy M. I will 6 meetings to Alcoholics Anonymous and no more trips to the hospital. To all the underclassmen, the best of luck for you'll all need it to survive in this school. To Karen B. and Teresa Taylor, The NHS Marching Band so they can always have music. To Donna A., I will the ability not to bragg about things, especially herself. To Al. P.(Alias: the Creep), a telephone in every room in his house, a bucket of scalding hot water so I can drown him. To Babes(alias: Jim), my love for all eternity if we make it to the top, and find love not only in ourselves but in other people. Also, the answer is YES. To all my other friends, all my love and best of luck in years to come. Also, you guys had better keep in touch.

I, Mike Berardi, of sound body and deteriorating mind, will to Dee Christian: one dozen of extra large AAA eggs. To Doug Schultz: a new door and bumper. To Ken Stomack: Better jokes To Mark Storm: Better luck with girls. To Eric Maloney: a shovel for all of his BS. To Mr. Holdsworth's students: more pillows to sleep on. To John Brown: something else besides your landrover. To Jeff, Sprat, Ralph and Mac: a permabuzz. To Steve Alfoldy: shirts for your bowling team. To Cheryl Latouf: less competition(to Brady Kramer). To Freddy Jafari: a camel with snow shoes for the winter time.

I, Jill Berquist(Let's skip the mind and body bit), hereby bequeath the following: To Ann: my picture to fight with in college. To Allyn: many beaux garcons, my Neil Bradley scrapbook, and another "magic" Friday night. To Linda: Ray's muscles, Karlo's laugh, and Budd's face. To my social advisor, Diana: 50 before the first telephone pole. To Lisa: a green striped carnation. To Lynne: a tight skirt and a pair of scizzors. To Sheryl: a suitcase of "to be verbs" and a soft pit band. To Julie W: another big sister and John 14:1-4. To Brett: the assurance that this is finally the end of the matter. To the Kindes and the "Something's Afoot" cast: Hope all your "Sound waves" are good vibrations. To the Humanities Trio: THANKS! Someday I'll send you a postcard from Rome. And finally, I will my month on dog and my week on dishes to Linnie Bee, whom I in turn will to NHS.

I,Karen Boll, being of insane mind and exhausted body do hereby will the following: To Becky Simmons, BOK-EK!:: To Jackie Sherman, one wild and crazy night, one sober practice, and a decent Snoopy Shuffle; to Y-RAM, one mount being the base, one pair of elevated shoes and a date with the pigeons in the park; to Sue Gordon, a car that will only go 20 mph; to Bob Crisan, one fro pick and one day that I won't cut you down; to Carol Wissman, my ever-loving ghetto cruiser; take care of it!; to Kay Wolf, stop messing with your earring!; to Trinky Platte, one hour where you'd stop talking business, one game with unchapped legs, a streak of laringitis and a sargents uniform to fit your role; to Tammy Eis, one day free of pain, illness or injury and a day we both drive slow; to Jody Lauber, a day we can jog ten yards, make it up the A&W hill with our bikes and a Freshmen or Sophomore weekend without alcohol; to Kyle Roggenbuck, an operation to remove your fins, a 5 hour talk every Friday night and an orange-coke tree; To Kyle, Jody and Tammy, my love and friendship forever; to Greg Bach, 25 tons of bird seed; to Brett Blanchard, a holiday without a "surprise", one night with Nanette at "The House", my unpicked fingers, and our friendship, may it never die; to Sue Pegrum, a day that's sane and a "good" Spanish class; to Bev Kohl, thanks for the party (May God help us all, I'm still recovering); to Harry Couyoumjian, one time to NOT yell at me from the stands and a day without a smile; to Sheryl Wissman, a minute without saying "Hi" to everyone down the halls(use the P.A.); to Luigi, Grr! and stop beating me up; to Myles Couyoumjian, your laugh, change it; to Don McCally, one day when you can decide on a girl; to Tracy Ade, keep your claws to yourself; to Sharon Alspaugh, a day free of flirting; and to Jenny Gloer, a trip to Acapulco, a years supply of Tab and bologna, and a boat trip together with Conchi and Abel. All my love for you. Friends forever; and to the Senior class, one toga graduation party at my house. WHOOPEE!!

I, John Byrd, being of sound: a) mind b) body c) none of the above, leave all my worldly goods to be distributed in this way. To: Leslie, Zoi, Carolyn and Christie-I leave my prized picture of the boys swim team doing the backstroke. To: Anita-I leave my master key to the offices. To: Denise and Holly-I leave the sum of $200 dollars to sustain them through the second hour munchies. To: Jim and Amy-all the Huggy Huggy Kissy Face they can stand. To: Mr. Camen-the new Mr. Coffee Machine.

I, Robert Daniels, being of sound and questionable body, do hereby will the following people the following things: Jay Byrd, a Mopar with dependability; to Zoi, Anita, Leslie, Carolyn and Christy, a new Minolta (with Zoom) for use only during the Boy's Swim meets; to Laurie Sellen and Carolyn Shrot, the memory power of a herd of elephants; to Ma Dwyer, a 12 foot bullwhip to train her rebellious children; to Mrs. Brown, a "You-stripe-it" kit for cars (in three-tone red) to fit a Sunbird Harchback; to Sheryl Wissman, the ability to say "Goodbye" to someone; to the Girls Swim Team, opaque swim suits; to the partiers in the class of '80, a new party store which will sell to minors, a new police force which will not bust Mayberry, and a new set of administrators with open ears and minds; and to the class of '79, many thanks and the best of wishes.

I, David Defrancesco, being of Busched mind, leave the following to the following: to Mr. Holdsworth, I leave a whip and chair. To Mr. Anderson, I leave my sympathy for having to go through life with that voice. To Kent Freydel, I leave a brewery. To Paul Adams, I leave a map to Billy Carter's gas station. To Mark Elker, I leave a bionic ear. To my Busch buddies, I leave the mountain. To Cliff Griggs, "How's it hangin'?"

I, Tammy Eis, being of sound mind and body will cute, bubbly, freckled-face (sister) Jackie, crazy Becky, and Mary-gram the senior year of their dreams-Good luck at camp: keep up the tradition, and see ya in the next issue of Vogue! To Kris, her Dr. Pepper and her pair of pinkies. To Karen, Kyle, and Jody, my great friends, I wish you the best of luck. Also, to Karen a date with a tall, dark and handsome Puerto Rican, Kyle a life supply of Romance novels to carry her through college, and Jody a few inches of growth.

I, Laura Eisele, being of semi-sane mind and uncoordinated body do hereby will the following to the following people. To Sharon Alspaugh, a bottle of Andre' Champagne, and a second cousin. To Sue Stuef, I leave the Garfield house and many happy nights in the field next door. To Sue Mitchell and Lisa Shake, I leave a room together at Michigan State and always remember BF's forever. To Lynne Oliver, I leave another year of Calculus, a certain Armada, and best wishes at whichever of the ten colleges she is accepted at. To Jill Berquist and Allyn Young, enough annual Boy Boycotts to last a lifetime. To the rest of the "Groupie", may we meet again at our 10th reunion and at least remember each other. And to Sally Pawlowski, I leave a copper van; enough boat races to last a lifetime; and the ability to decide between Leif, Donny and Wes; a car of her own to drive me around in; and enough Friday and Saturday nights to make up for all the ones we might have missed.

I, Lisa A. Friel, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: To my "favorite pal", Brian Pratt, I leave the Hill-Top Shoppe (please take good care of it, Bri!!). To Dave McDonald, I will as many peppermint, spearmint and wintergreen life-savers he can handle. P.S: Close 'em up good for freshness! To Lynn (crummy chick) Herald, I leave another shot at State, a carton of chocolate milk (ie) a white tennis dress to wear it on, another Typing I class, and most of all, "lots a luck kid!" To Toby, I will the pink toy store in Plymouth and a lating smile. To the "wild bunch", I leave several more Friday and Saturday nights packed into one car and living more adventurously. I also leave each and every one of you the ability to live your lives exactly the way you want! To Jerry Sherwood, I will David Bowie's ability to be an alligator (Why? cause it's FUN!!), the strength to keep jumping over all those hurdles, and most importantly, all the hope that someday you can live your life like "Chip & Dale" do! Last of all, I leave to the classes of '80 & '81, the most carefree times of their life. P.S: RAGE!!!

I, Luigi Folino, do hereby will the following: To Steve Alföldy the ability to beat me in a round of golf. To Rob Holloway the ability to drink and not get caught. To Tammy Eis the ability to like just one guy and a sense of humor. To Carol W. the ability to burn me as bad as I burn her; keep on floating. To Don Borthwick I will the ability to have a good time at parties, if he ever goes to one. To Mark & Dena, a place to be alone: we've had enough. To Bob Boshoven, my grade point average. To Bill Bosanko a build as big as he thinks it is.

I, Dana Foster, being of small mind and even smaller body, leave the following: To Chris Harris the ability to graduate this year with fond memories of "Willie" and "Tracey"! (Just kiddin', Chrissy). To Keith Ruffner, I leave my money, that's always at home, and many parties to share in the future. To Peggy Deveraux and Donna Blaney, I leave the interesting conversations we had that didn't pertain to the class discussion, and to fulfill in their senior year their obligation to party once every day as in their junior year. To Colleen Keyes, I leave an everlasting relationship with Joe, as Robin and I have, and to be able to see more of each other at the Toad. To Cyd Warren I leave a long and happy relationship with Eugene and party like HELL your senior year. To Drew Farkas, I leave a long relationship with Sharron McFadden: who knows, someday you'll get married and have kids all with Red Hair! (Just kiddin') To Mary Dooley, I leave many more experiences, as I have, at Big Boys. To Lisa Moulds, Kelly Meyers, and Mike Palmer, may you raise all hel your senior year at Band Camp. To the Band, I leave my black dress, it has fulfilled it's obligation in every concert. To our fall conservation class that we may always have that close feeling for each other that we shared those three days at camp! (Cosmie-Wow). To all teachers, when I leave, there will be two more Fosters after me: I'm warning you! And to Robin Shoner, I leave my body (not much, suffer!) and mind (not much either) to do what you please! (not much at all!) I still love ya, babe.

I, Jenny Gloer, will John Zimmerman one fair wrestling match. (Sorry buddy, I won!) To Paul Cook, the looser-of-the-year award, and a date to Little Ceasars. To my favorite B.G. Buddy Debbie Bauer, one date who will beat you to the lights, also one party that you can remember. Dan Ludwick one evening that I will remember! To my lifetime buddy, Jane Tilson, my friendship forever, and one trip to McDonald's, when you can make it home safe! To Kellie Kissel, one shaver, a pair of pliers and one night. I also leave you my charming personality (after all that's how we met!) and my love and friendship. To Karen Boll our lives in Acapulco! Of course I leave you my friendship, love and gratitude! I also leave you the ability to be a clutz and to Lynne Pauley, my friendship forever and OUR ideas (Shake it to the left!). To Craig Raycraft, one pro hamburger maker and one ear (thanx for talking & listening, buddy). To Tom Cahill, a new set of B.G. Girls to bother you the rest of your life and a supply of gum. Also, our honeymoon suite for whomever you wish! To Tim Cahill, a pair of Guarded Socks to keep the girls away from your SEXY ANKLES. To Lance Carter, a party every night. Greg Bach, one school night and one morning to go out and finally enjoy a class. Britt Evans & Dena Irwin the will to wear your uniforms on the right day.

I, Lynn Griffith, being of sound mind & body (?) do will the following: To Janel, I leave her very own bus to come when she is ready and another "chick". To T.M., I leave a lot of luck; lord knows he needs it, and someone else to pinch. To Larry, I leave another Friday night with you know who to look for pididdles. To Mark, I leave another chance. To Kathy I don't leave anything because she already has everything. To Mike a lifetime supply of pillows to hit instead of lockers or cars. To Karolee the ability to get bombed and not get sick. And her very own car so she doesn't have to sneak her parent's. To Ms. Tibble, another Sewing class full of half-asleep students. To all my underclasmen friends a fantastic Senior year. To Pat, I leave all my love but especially me. To Dan T, "helio" since we never met each other.

I, Mark Harper, being of excellent body and modest mind will to the following: To Dena another senior year so that we can have another great year together. To Rob Holloway, I will to myself another great friend like you. To Dave Herbl another party at your house so I can raid the bar full of food, a yellow bird all your own, not your dad's. To Britt Evans more of the fun times we had last summer. To my brother all my clothes since you always wear them. To Lynn Pauley a new dance partner. To Suzy Heinzman a boyfriend that lives closer to you. To all of my clique, thanks for making my high school years the best.

To Dr. Deathgrip-a kegger at my house. To M.M., T.M., K.S., M.L.(and the rest of Kool and the Gang): A four-year ride at Screw Around U. To "Bear" Brian-a smaller neck for the one that outgrew him. And finally, to my own beloved, Michelle, I leave the impossible dream (Keep it alive), and all my love, FHTE.

I, Sue Kaestner, being of sound mind and body do hereby will the following things to the following people: to my sister, Jane, a new morning personality and all the great times I've had in our blue bomb. To Lisa Friel, a house in Ann Arbor with wooden floors and wicker furniture and of course D.B. To Sue Pegrum a great new life in college without good-ole Mom and Dad. To Bev K. and Karen D. the "missing tnioj", and to the rest of the "W,B.", my thanks for all the great times we've had. To Mike L. the girl from Powell Studios phone #, a long list of girls on your locker, and one of your wild dreams come true. To Brian Faustyn the date you've been waiting for and the ability to pick the RIGHT college, MSU. To John Marzonie at least one girl at NHS who's good enough for you to take out. To Joe Schimpf all the happiness in the world and my friendship forever. To all the future senior girls the ability not to cut down younger girls in your wills. And finally to all future classes at NHS-a 21 year-old to buy for you, a place to refund your empties and the ability to be AS good (never better) as the class of '79!!!

I, Kim Kratz, being of more or less sound mind and body (less than more) do hereby bequeath the following: To Mr. Satarino I leave one official computer readout of his government file ($@!! ... crazy counselor from small Michigan town-bad news! ... $½&!)-many thanks. To Perp I leave a new I.D. To Connie- many glassy-eyed smiles. To Nancy-and teternal acquaintance. To Suzy I leave memories of Farmington pigs and pour parties. To the volleyball team I leave ego-inflated Steve McDonald. And, to next years seniors I leave many wild and crazy times-STEVE MARTIN LIVES!

I, Lambsie, do hereby bequeath the following: To Sue Small, the realization that beer is really good, and a big party of your own. To Kent F, a birthday that makes you legal forever. To Liz S., a good nickname because I haven't thought of one yet. To Sue S., a roll of toilet paper that doesn't move, and some more to throw out car windows. To Lisa S., a 500 page black book so there's room to write down all of the names of the guys that are in love with you. To Don, a McDonalds of your own, someone to clean up after your parties (I've retired) and 500 cases of Heinekin, and a popcorn tree of your own. To Terri, more fun times at the nut house.

I, Cheryl Latouf, being of sound mind and body do will the following: To Linda B. all the fun memories, my car, a room at Michigan State, and a double wedding. My kid Sue all your boys, Little Ceasars, John, Parking, B-Ball and your mom forever. YENAH PETS . . . football games, Jelly, reeb's, birth certificates, 81, 81, 81, Burger King drive-in, college, a GREAT SENIOR YEAR. Remember always . . . ! Hee-HeeHee

I, Debbie Bauer, being of shattered mind and don't mention the body, hereby will to Sally Nair, the best of luck at CMU(see you there), a roommate that can take you, a few more guys with different names(Dubley-Wubley) and the memories of all those crazy times (BA-HA). To Jenny Gloer enough "action" to last her a life time. A weekend without a "so embarrassing" moment, memories of out B6 escapades. Toga forever! To Diane Dechape (Don't worry), good luck with dancing, thanks for the fun times (Remember all those sleep-overs), one guy so you don't have to worry which one to pick. To Britt, a very horrible weekend because you never had one. To a group of nice guys, Craig, Tim, Tom: the ability to buy and not get caught, all the luck in the world. To Roberta & Suzi-the ability to cook. You've been great friends. Stay Happy. To Dave Lucas a little confidence, thanks for being a great friend and always being there to get me out of trouble(or in it). To Julie Starceovich the ability to be her self (she's a much nicer person). To Mary Westervelt, a car she can drive and a body proportioned to her mouth (Good luck in gymnastics). To Karen Hauff, a guy she can trust (Don't be so naive) and a great senior year. To my sister, Donna, a little common sense (since you don't have any) and all the fun times I've had (Be careful!).

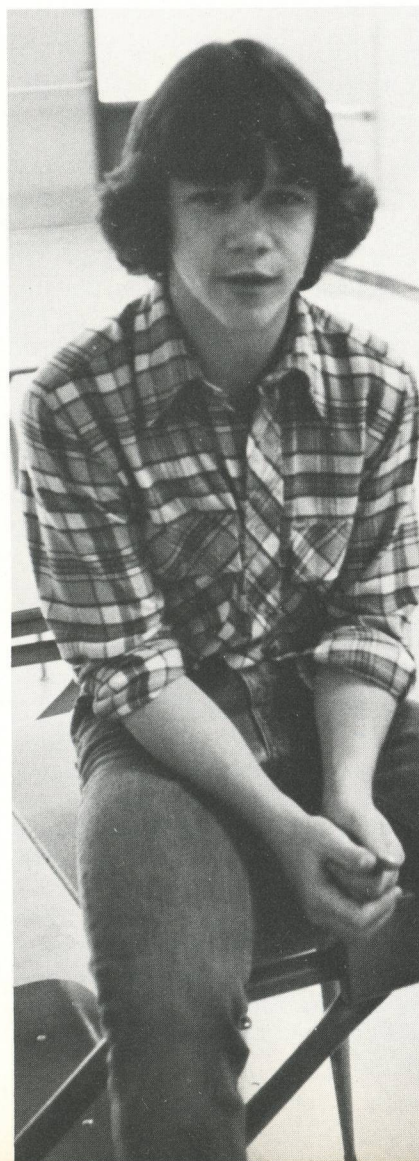

On Your Mark,

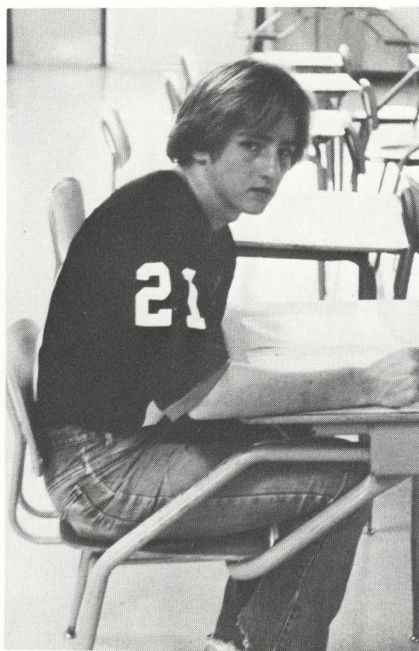

Get Set,

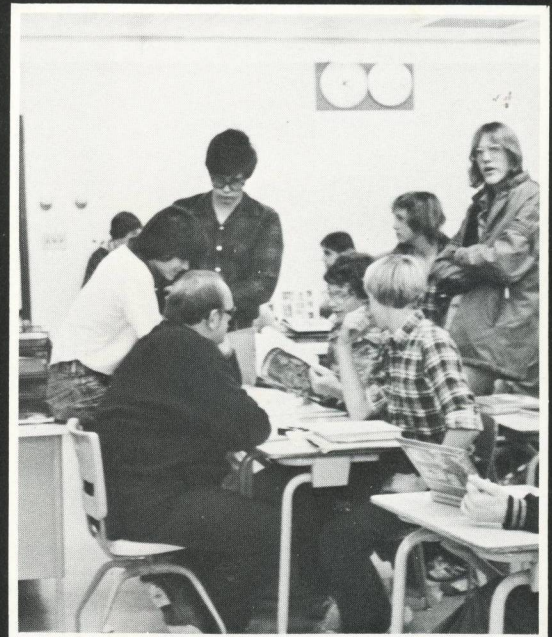

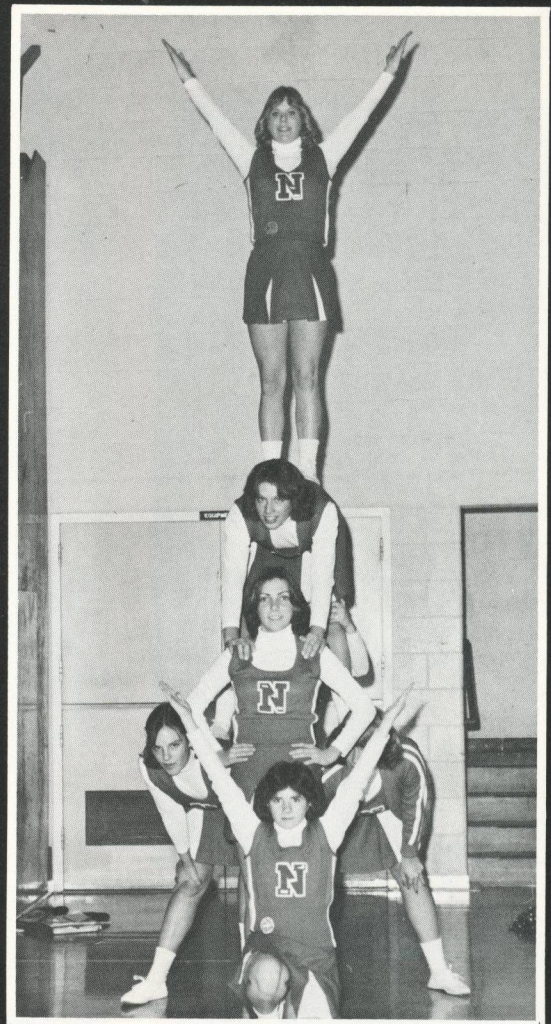

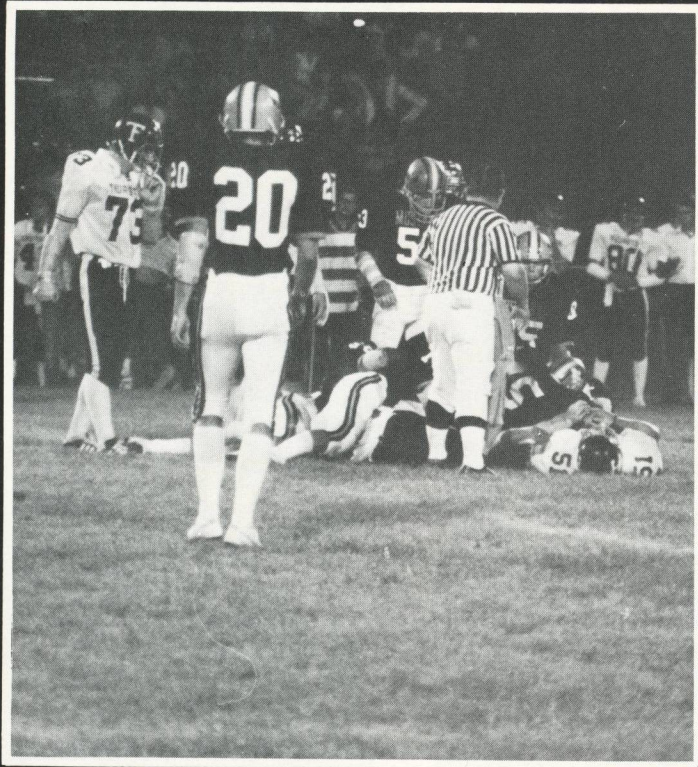

And Go Now.

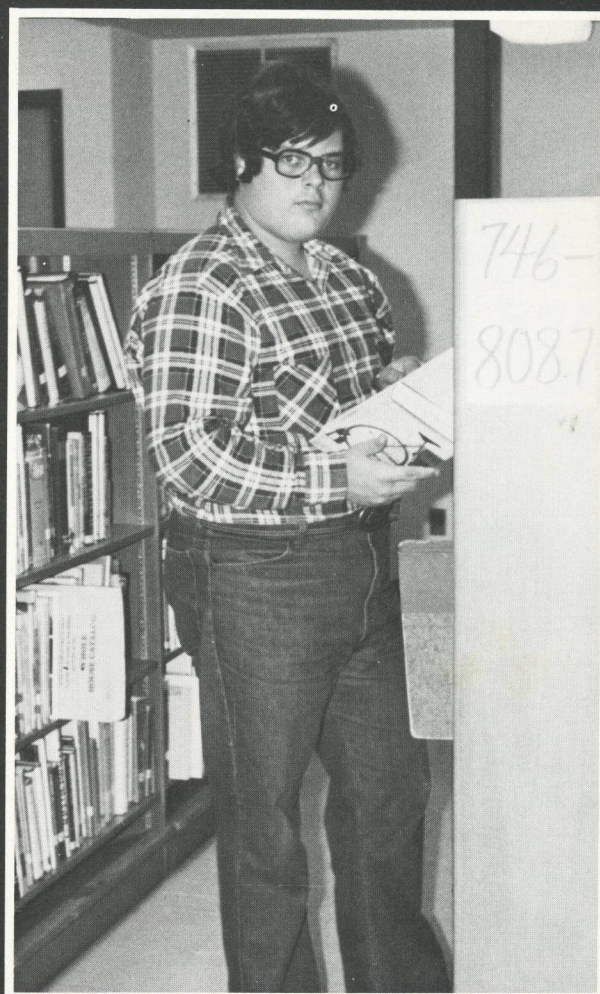

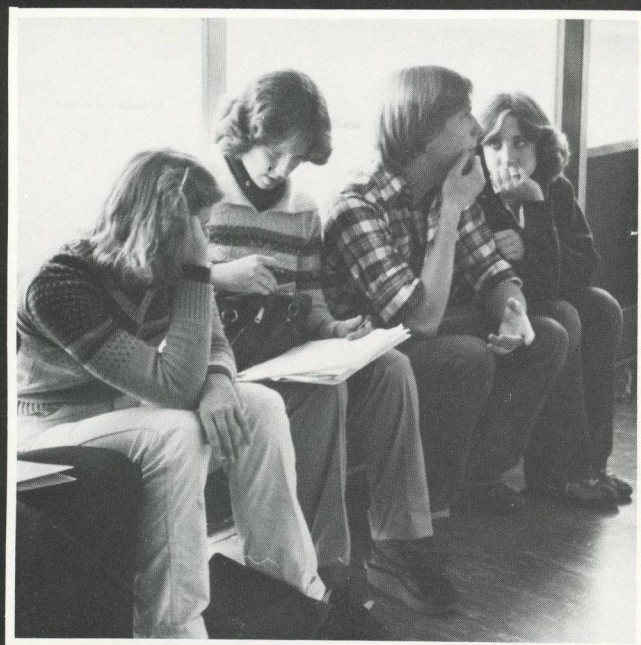

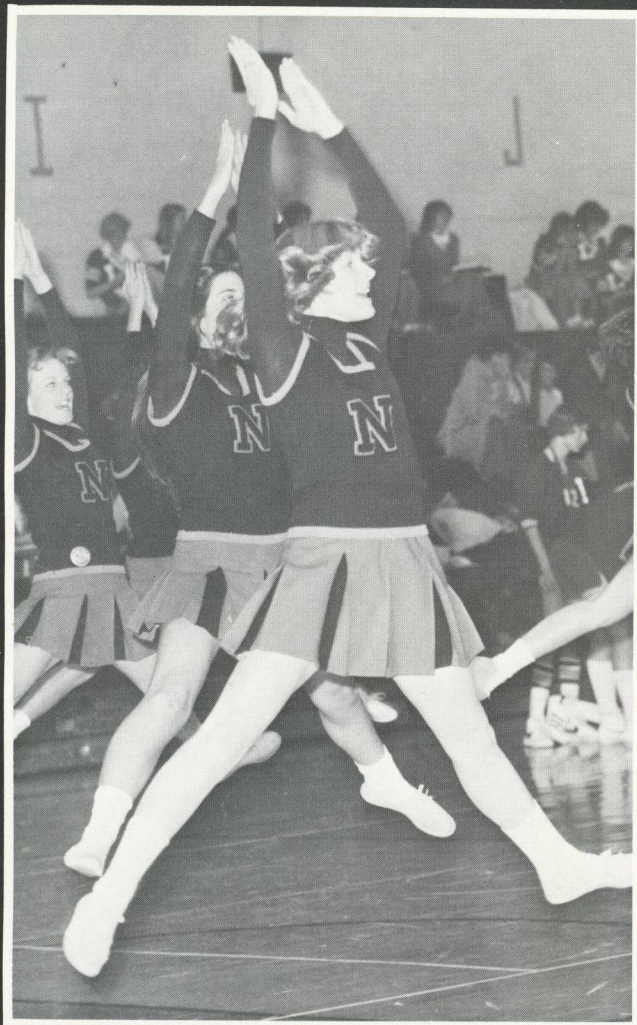

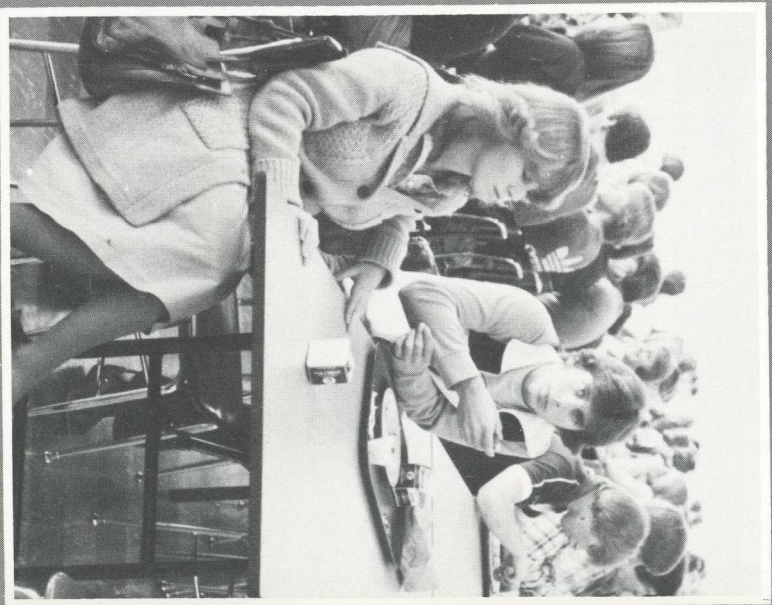

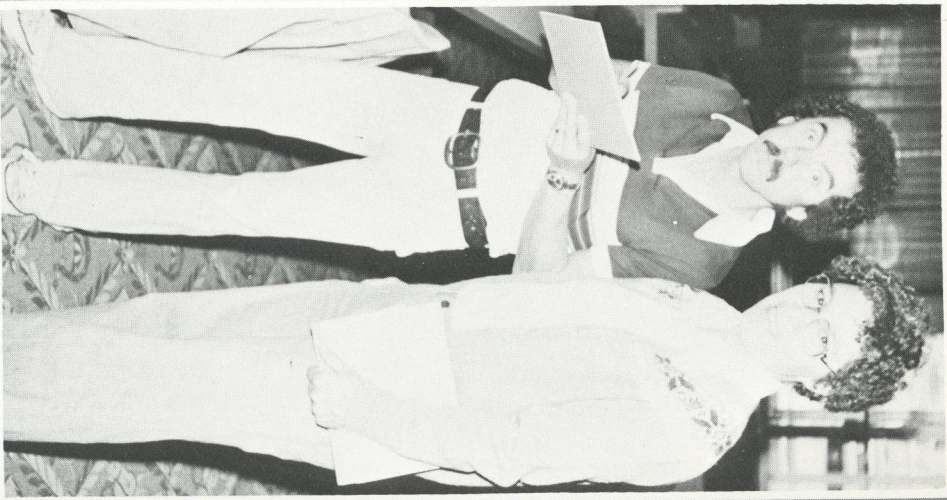

Got A Dream And We Just Know Now.

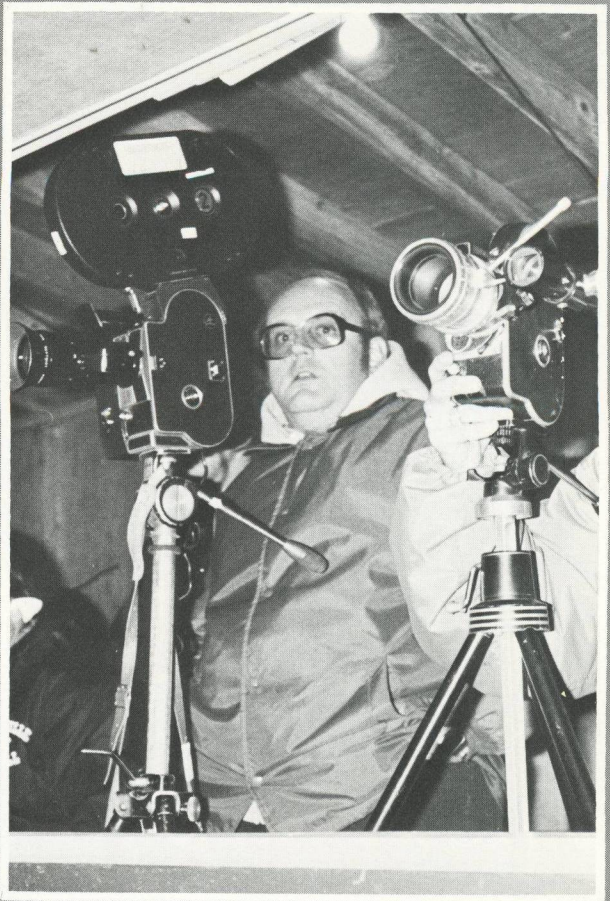

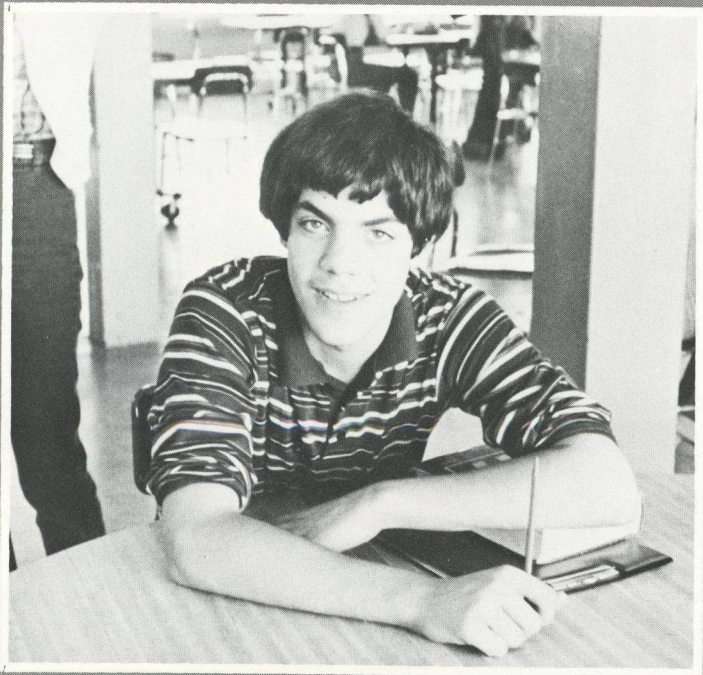

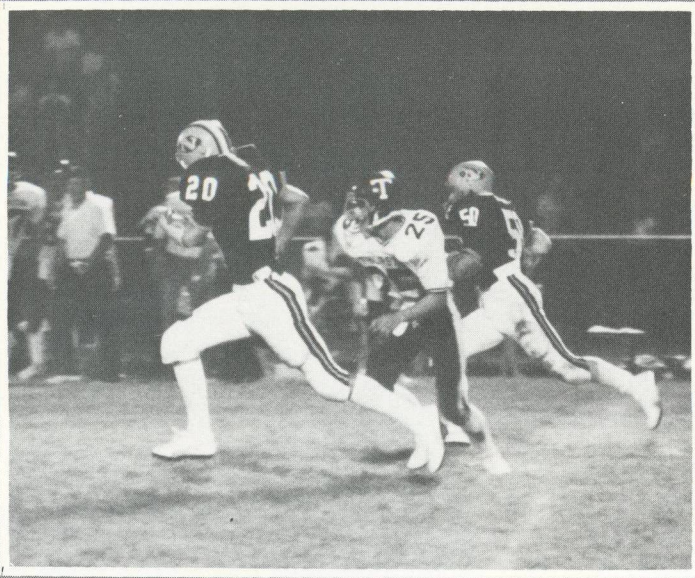

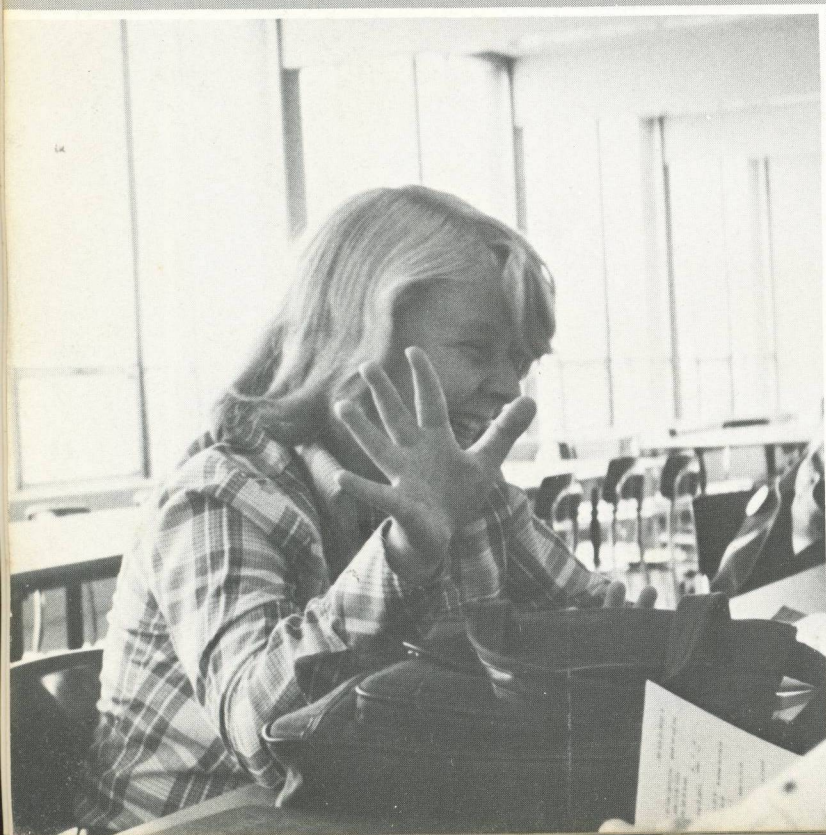

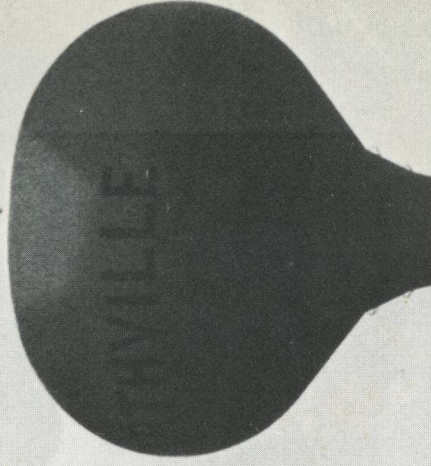

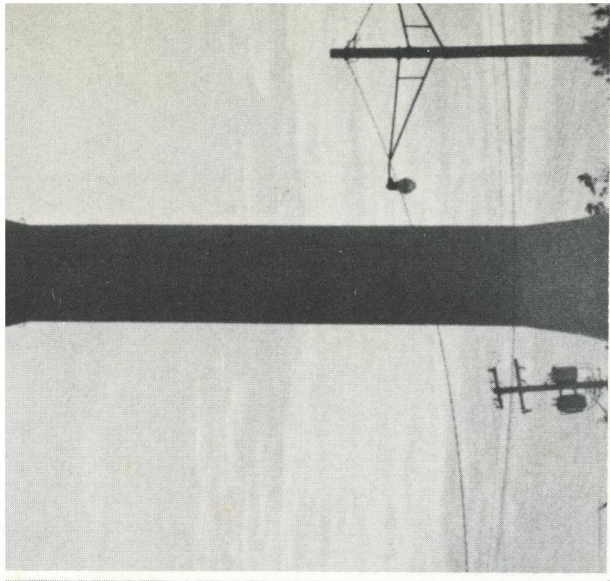

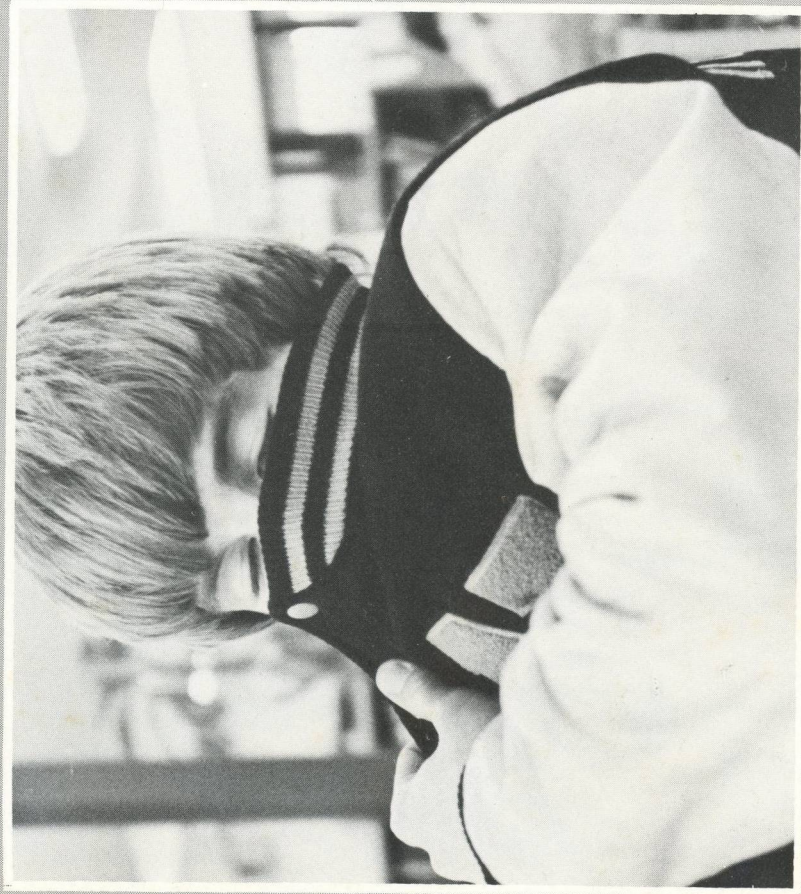

And We'll Do It Our Way,

Yes, Our Way.

*Make All
Our Dreams
Come True . . .*

...For Me
And You.
