1997 PALLADIUM ■ VOLUME 76
775 CENTER ST. ■ NORTHVILLE, MI 48167 ■ ENROLLMENT 1328

In Kindergarten, I dreamt of being a famous movie star, shining in the spotlight. Later, I decided to be an astronaut, exploring the wide unknown. After sixth grade, my love of learning inspired me to become a teacher. A few years later, my persuasive skills led me to pursue a career in law. Now if you ask me what I want to be when I grow up... I wouldn't be able to tell you.

What do you want to be when you grow up? It does not matter if individually we want to become a research scientist or a dancer, or even president, our goals are the same. Even if we have different dreams, each of us strives toward success. And as time goes on, we grow to discover independence and self-identity. It is our pride, honor, and achievement that ties us together and drives us into the future. With this realization, we can blossom into capable and successful adults.

This is a picture of Donny Osmond and me while I was in "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat." Let me tell you that Donny is really an incredible person. In fact most actors are nice people. He was modest, but not too modest, about his voice.

I love to act. So I missed the entire 7th grade to tour around the U.S. with the Broadway play "The Secret Garden."

These two events were the best things that have ever happened to my life so far. I wish to sing, act, and direct when I get older. "To the telling of these stories I've devoted years of my life - every moment has been worth it." - Lars Kvalvaag

Summer Scenes

We found summer almost as busy as the school year itself! Switching work from part-time to full-time, we soon became tired of the “ding” of the cash register, or the crackling oil from flipping a hamburger. We took pride in Friday paydays, where we could fill our bank accounts with college funds.

Besides work, we joined sports leagues: softball, baseball, and soccer. Church groups explored the Appalachian mountains, Boy Scouts camped in the wilderness, and some of us found solace in cabins up north. Through our own school, Spanish, French, and German trips left the US for a greater, more worldly perspective. Vacations to favorite places like Hollywood and Disney World let us honor our imaginations and let loose our child spirits.

Still others took an academic approach to summer activities, taking part in summer institute or Boys'/Girls' State. The Freshmen and Sophomores stayed at school for Driver's Education. After learning the rules of careful driving, they felt a sense of achievement for completing four weeks of extra school. Many upperclassmen spent the summer shopping from college to college, deciding which one would “fit” them the best.

As August neared, sports teams began training while the music of band members filled the school. After an enjoyable and lazy summer, we were ready to show our spirit once again.

A Day in the Life of a Teacher

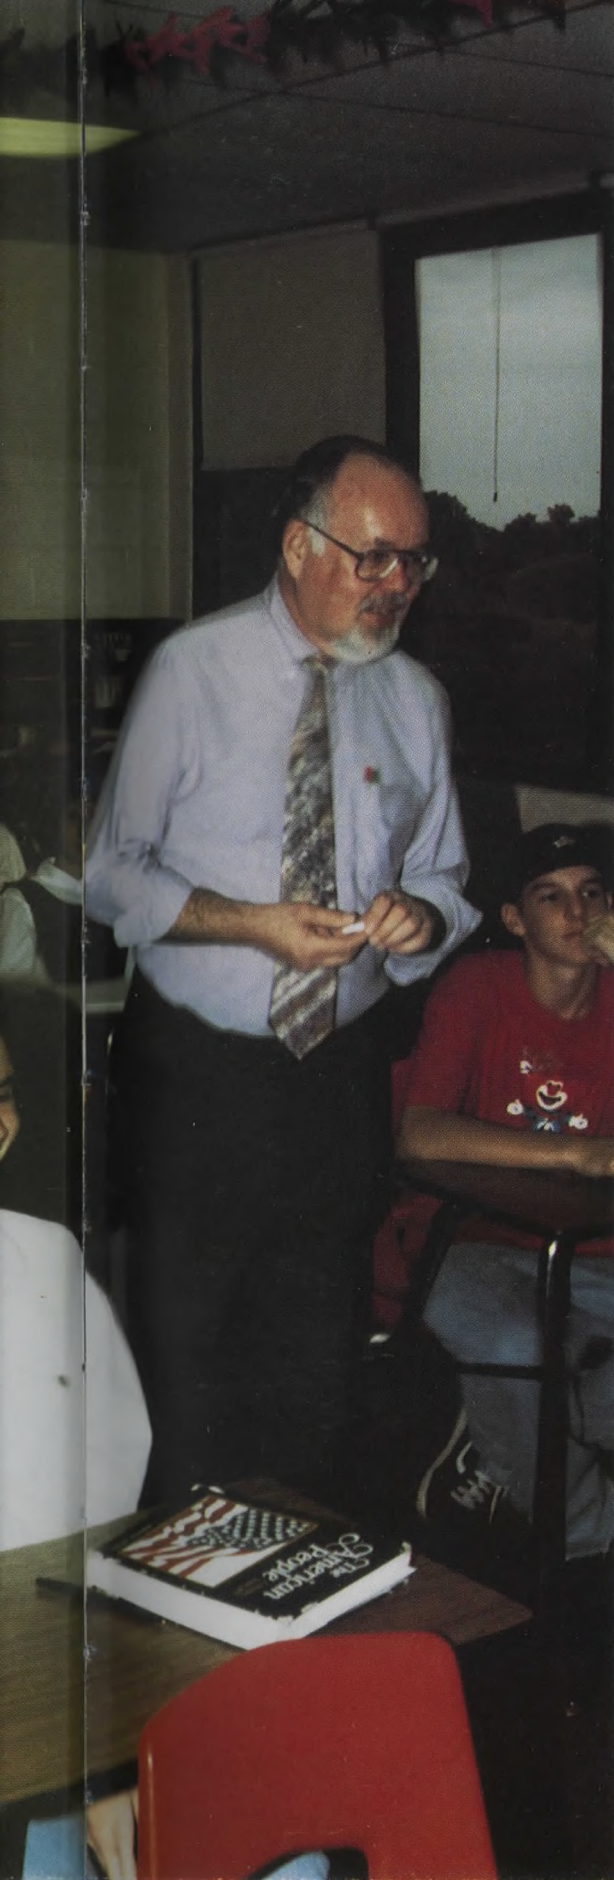

Students may think that the lives of teachers are boring; however, balancing a career and a family is not easy. For some teachers, the day begins with a cup of coffee in the lounge; for others it starts with juice and a bagel from the cafeteria. Then many high school staffers wend their way to the photo copying room jockeying for positions to run off quizzes, project expectations, or interesting news lines for topical discussions.

The day unfolds in an astounding array of students' probing questions: "Why are we dissecting fetal pigs?" "Is it really a sin to kill a mockingbird?" "Are we marching outside in this weather?"

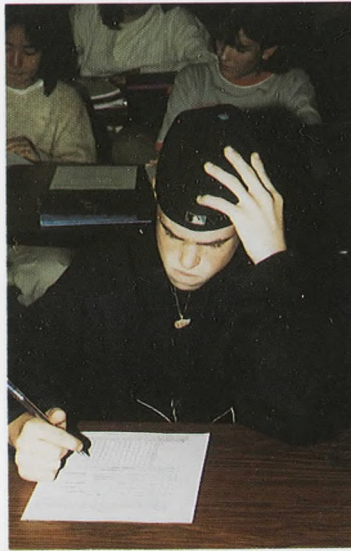

The goal for every teacher is to engage the reluctant, inspire collectively, and meet every individual need - from a forgotten pencil to helpful advice about a problem. The day does not end with the two o'clock bell. For many, it merely shifts the worksite from the classroom to an athletic meet, a choir festival, a quiet study at home to grade papers, or a college campus for more training.

It is a hectic day from dawn's first rays to well after dark, and what keeps most educators totally engaged and committed is the cherished belief that they are passing the torch of knowledge to the next generation.

A Day in the Life of a Student

In this chaotic world that we live in, school is one of the few routines which remains constant. Most mornings we drag ourselves out of bed, stumble into our clothes, grab a muffin and run after the bus. We half-heartedly wake up to the sound of Mr. Dent's Humanities lecture, or clumsily adjust the microscope in Ms. Nelson's Biology class. Walking towards second hour, we trudge our way through the hallways, carefully dodging the swinging backpacks. After handing in a major essay for Advanced Composition, we are relieved that third hour has begun. The movie in International Issues about starving children in India makes us feel lucky to have such an awesome cafeteria. By the time we bite into our sandwiches, we are finally mentally awake and ready to face the day. As fifth hour rolls around, we breeze through the Algebra test, glad that the three-hour study group session payed off. After a long band rehearsal, we head to the pool, relieved that we can let out our aggression on physical activity. When we finally return home, we eat dinner and start on our homework. After an exhausting day, we collapse into bed, thinking about what exciting things lay in store for the school day tomorrow.

The style of these Juniors reflects the influence of the past on the present.

Students demonstrate their Victorian spirit with fancy hats, shawls, and dresses.

The Good ol' Days

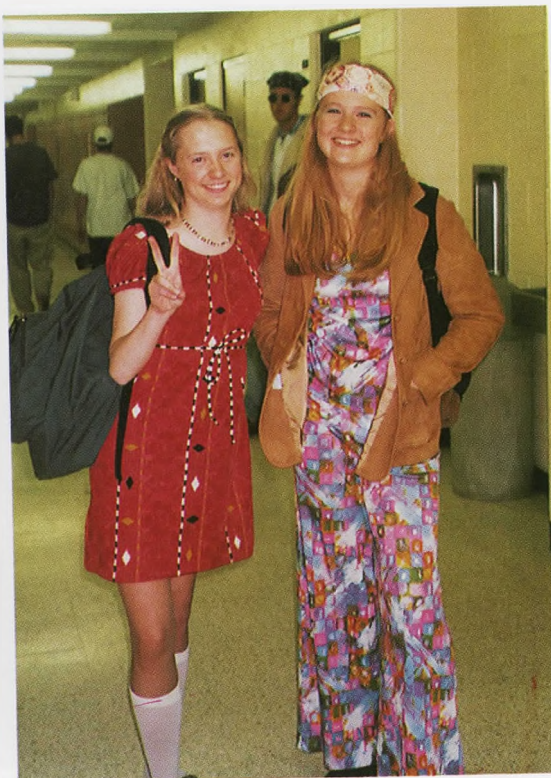

This year is a time of self-expression. All the fashions that we sport today are an intermingling of the past, from the stylish 50's to the flashy 70's.

During the Victorian Era huge hoop skirts, tight waists, suspenders, and knickers held their place proudly. Although the bleak weather of the Victorian Festival hindered the amount of visitors, the fashions brightened up the dreary weekend.

The Era day during Homecoming week was the setting for Northville's Blast from the Past. Freshmen dressed in 60's style clothing: tie-dye shirts, blue jeans, and braided hair. Sophomores showed their 80's garb with crimped hair, tight rolled jeans, and tacky jewelry. The rebellious juniors defied their assigned era of the 50's and instead pretended they were Freshmen with flower child attire. The Seniors' spirit achieved an all-time high as platform shoes, bell bottoms, and gaudy color of the 70's filled the hallways of NHS.

Today's styles reflect the past. Even after Homecoming week, styles remained a mixture of clothing from different eras.

Seniors Beth Boginski and Elizabeth Orłowski disco their way into the 70's spotlight.

Gerald Liu is living proof of the school's cold yet stimulating environment.

Fun and practical jewelry, such as these plastic rings, have made a recent comeback.

Whitney Anolick and Natalie Moran model the latest trend in fashion.

Tisha Mazzola creates her own unique sense of style.

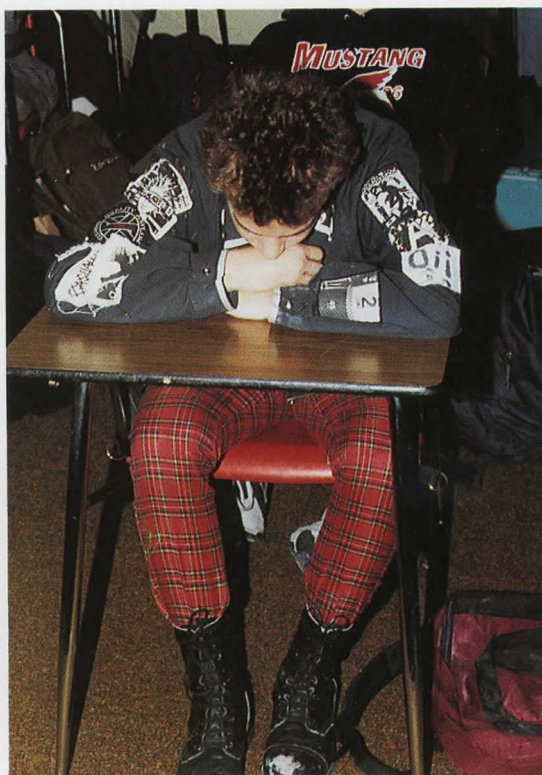

Northville High School Fashion Show

Walking through the halls of Northville High School is much like walking through the corridors of an international airport. Anything and everything goes. There is the ever-popular Get-up and Go look of sweats, claw clips, and flip-flops. Other students, still in the grunge stage, start the day with baggy jeans, corduroy overalls, flannels, and work boots. With the start of this year, there has been a noticeable increase in school spirit attire. Golf team members show off their Northville Fishing hats while Senior girls honored the traditional '97 black and orange jerseys. Fashion conscious females achieved an updated look with techno tints in nail polish and lipstick, patterned hosiery, velvet shirts, and lace up collars. However, the guys' styles have resisted change. Many of them continue to wear suspenders, baseball hats, and other sport team apparel with pride.

Making a fashion statement, Nick Bataran daydreams in Mr. Dent's class.

Lori Carbott looks as if she just stepped out of a scene from Snow White.

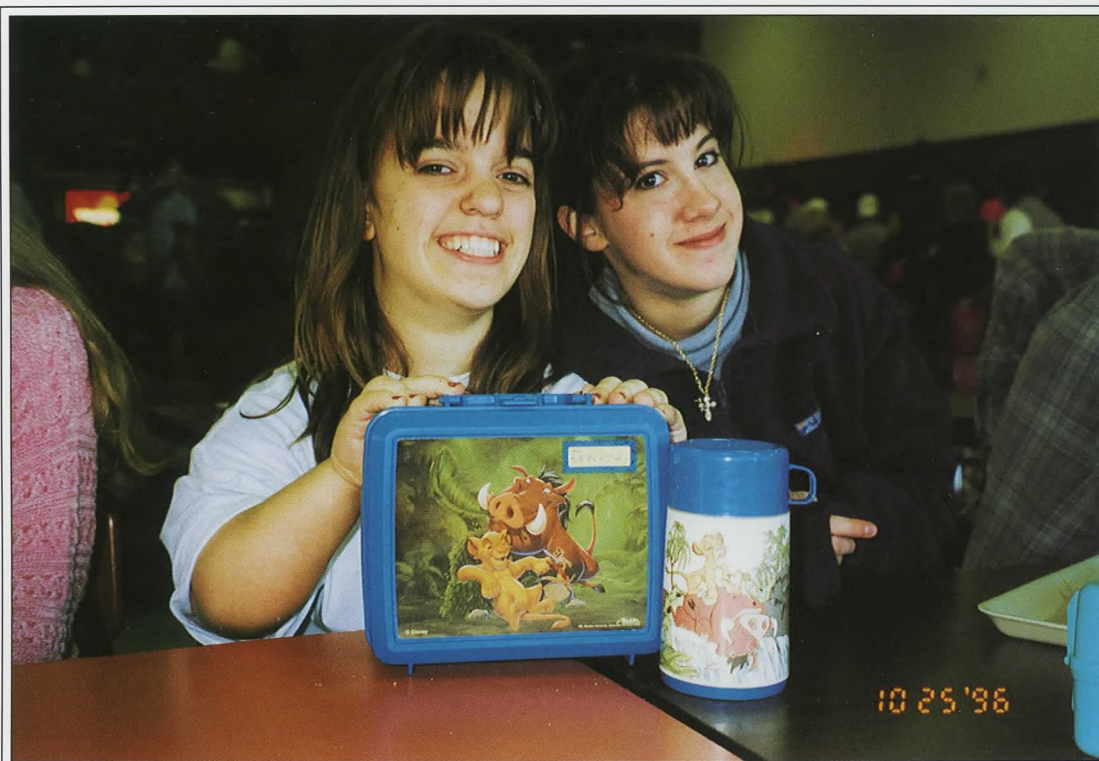

Just like one of the students, Mrs. Hoffman joins in celebrating the magic of Disney.

The latest trend in lunchboxes include characters from the Lion King.

Katie Krupansky and Cristin Connolly drape themselves in cartoon attire.

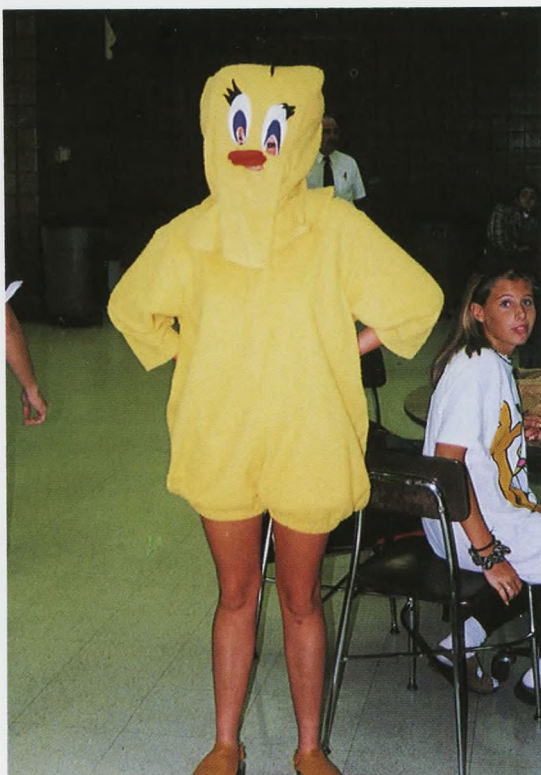

Beyond Reality

Contrary to popular belief, stores such as Disney and Warner Brothers do not just cater to Elementary students. Winnie-the-Pooh, Goofy, Pocahontas, and Tweety Bird: These are only a few of the cartoon characters which have achieved a recent comeback into Northville High School hallways. Many students, devoted to their childhood memories, still carry Lion King lunchboxes, Snoopy folders, and even dress up as Snow White on cartoon day during Homecoming week. Styles vary from Garfield boxers to Hello Kitty pencil boxes, from Mickey Mouse sweatshirts to Elmo watches.

To some sophisticated dressers, it may seem like a fashion faux pas, while to others it allows us to honor our imaginations. Perhaps the reason why we commit such fashion taboos is due to our need to release our minds and escape the realm of reality. There are still some who scoff at our attempts to be creative, but as a whole, we are opened to the integration of new and old. Someday we'll be looking back with pride on our youthful spirit.

Escape

After a long stress-filled day at Northville High School, students have a need to escape the daily pressures of their lives. Whether down the street or in a foreign country, students can find their special places to unwind.

Many Northville High School students head toward long-honored places in nature to clear their minds. The setting of the English or Senior courtyard help achieve a sense of serenity.

Other students, searching for an escape from the daily trials of life, hang out with friends or find other outlets for relaxation. No matter where the special spot, or who the company, there is always a feeling of comfort in finding escape.

Music In The Air

All the bands had a great time this year. At nearly 200 members, the NHS marching band was the largest it has ever been. It was lead by drum majors Katacia Williams, Jeremy Abbey, Charles Fan, and Travis Gilshire, assisted by Sacha Baker, Karen Gulewich, Carolyn Farmer, Sarah Rumbley, Jill Beck, Sarah Messenger, Beth Murray, Lisa Slepteski, and Matt Ferrara. The marching band performed wonderfully at the Victorian Festival, as well as at Band-O-Rama and Christmas Walk. Due to its large size, it was once again divided into two different class hours. The two bands played well in the choir/band Christmas concert. The jazz band competed in the Spring Festival and, as usual, was invited to the Detroit Montreaux Festival. Both symphonic bands performed in the symphonic festival this spring and did very well. The Music Department honors night awarded all the bands for a wonderful 1996-1997 season.

Choir

The choir began the year with a professional start as they joined with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra to sing tunes such as "O Fortuna" and "Battle Hymn of the Republic." The annual Fall and Christmas concert were both packed and overflowing, drawing students and the community to the high school to hear the choir's music. The trip to the Phantom of the Opera also let the choir enjoy the haunting melodies while realizing a higher level of music. The spring schedule consisted of high ratings at both the district and state festivals. After last year's success in Boston, a scout invited the choir to perform in Kentucky, creating the highlight of the year for them. All in all, the choir enjoyed a highly spirited and successful year.

Varsity

This was a year filled with dreams and aspirations. Despite the tough competition, the Northville Mustangs went out and fought hard every Friday night. Their record doesn't tell the true story of their season. They were faced with many excellent teams, but never gave up.

With seventeen Seniors leading the way, it seemed as if they were on the road to a perfect season. Many memories were made and will stay with these football players forever. For a team that may not have had a lot of wins, they always will have a winning heart.

For the first time in Northville High School history, the girl's varsity basketball team are both the Division and Conference Champions. The teams enjoyed a 17-6 record on the season while a 10-1 record in conference play. They were undefeated in the Division. Also for the first time, Northville had a ten game winning streak. The was led by captains Gina Chiasson, Lyndsay Huot, and Lauren Metaj, but each player contributed to the team's overall success. Lauren Metaj won WLAA All Conference and Gina Chiassson won WLAA All Division, while both Lyndsay Huot and Christine Herndon got honorable mention. Both the Junior Varsity and Freshman team also had winning seasons with their records 14-6 and 8-6 respectively. Congratulations Girls!

Pom Pon

Cheer-leading

The Northville High School Varsity Pom Pon Team enjoyed a successful 1996-1997 season. As reigning Division II State Champions, the team began the year by winning the grand Champs title at summer camp with firsts in kickline, speed learning, and original routine. They entertained the crowd with half-time performances at football, soccer, and basketball games. In addition to supporting the school's other sports, the team attended their annual dance, regional, and state competitions. Throughout their hard work, the team shared many smiles and memories.

The Northville Cheerleaders have had a year of triumph and new experiences under the leadership of two new coaches, Tracie Surdu and Annie Bondy. It began with the addition of several guys to the Varsity squad. This addition allowed the squad to perform more difficult partner stunts. At the National High School Cheerleading Championships in Orlando, Florida, the Varsity squad placed an amazing 19th in the nation! The cheerleaders also won the WLAA League Competition title for the third year. This was a wonderful season that will never be forgotten.

Cross Country

The girl's cross-country team, with captians Kristina Derro and Alissa Nadeau, completed an exciting and very sucessful season. The team, led by top runners Christin Kolarchick and Karen Loeffler, finished with a record 4-2 in an extremely challenging league. We brought home three trophies this year. The team retained their trophy for the fifth year in a row in the cross-over meet with John Glenn Invitational, bringing home the trophy for the second year in a row. The team also placed first at the Walled Lake Western Invitational, defeating several challenging teams, including Novi and Walled Lake Western. The team, consisting of 25 girls, showed wonderful spirit. A special thanks to Katie Spillane for her incredible strength and positive encouragement . Congratulations on a great year, young Lambs!

Nineteen ninety six was a rebuilding season where the senoir leadership of captains John Julow and Adam White inspired a young team to several important victories. Juniors Tim Schovers, Todd Emaus, Nick Schomer, and Dave Cooke showed steady improvment as pack leaders ad were aided by notable performances form sophomores Josh and Jeremy Smith, Jim Morrison, and a trio of freshman. The season's big surprise was the early emergence of Kevin Arbuckle as the team's number one runner. He was named to the Wester-Lake's All Division team, the Northville Record's All Area Team, and currently holds to school's Sophomore Record.

Women's Swimming

The 1996 women's swim team had another successful season, highlighted by many outstanding performances. Their overall dual meet record was 7-4. They finished second in the Western Division after an extremely close meet against Canton. In the WLAA League Championships, they swam their way into a remarkable fourth place finish. From that meet, two Mustang divers, Michon Slanina and Karen Fischer, advanced to Regionals. Swimmers Kristen Warnke, Leah Voytal, Alice Callan, Steph Sabo, Beth Handley, Kara Lyczak, and Gwen Osborne participated in the State Championships held at Eastern Michigan. Led by captains full of surprises as team Chris Bond, Craig Sievin, and Chris Anderson, the men's swim and dive team members showed off their new yellow leopard skin swim suits. The team will be sad to lose head coach Mark Heiden as he announced that this will be his last season as coach. Four valuable seniors also said their goodbyes but the team will look forward to building an even stronger team next season. The season was

Wrestling

The NHS wrestling team enjoyed a very successful season this year. With a winning individual record of 13-7, they finished in the top half of all their tournaments. The team saw at least one NHS individual victory at every meet. Anant Saran, Nick Sriraman, Rick Torrence, and Bryan Grider went to individual Regionals. Nick Sriraman and Rick Torrence both placed first. Rick Torrence, Nick Sriraman, and Bryan Grider all qualified for the State Competition.

Volleyball

This year the Mustang Volleyball team accomplished many of their goals. Our team consisted of 6 juniors and 6 seniors who worked well together on as well as off the court. We began the season playing in a tournament in Kalamazoo. The Mustangs tied for third in the Kalamazoo tourney; finishing higher than any Northville team in the past. We continued our season by crushing our rivals, Novi.

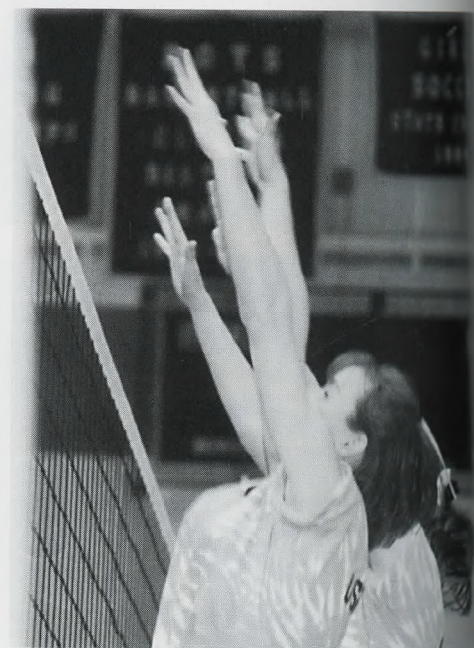

The 1996-97 JV Volleyball team was an outstanding group of student/athletes. They all understood the importance of teamwork. They demonstrated cooperation, communication, and competitiveness on and off the court. The JV team was led by three wonderful captains: Kara Anderson, Allison Baja, and Christina Chase. This season we were blessed with Melissa Livanos our team manager. Look for this team to dazzle you for the next three seasons.

The 1996-97 Freshman volleyball team had a great season. The girls showed improvement throughout the season. Each individual player contributed a special skill to the game, which made them strong on the volleyball court.

Gymnastics

As a second year combined team the Northville/Novi gymnastics team continued to improve in the year 1995/96. Highlights of the year were an undefeated dual meet season, second place finishes at both the Hartland and Canton Invationals, division champs, second at regionals, and third at State Finals.

Into our third year our team depth has increased. Our team is made up of many strong individuals: Mary Essary, Missy MacRae, Danean Pazdan, and Erica Winn lead the group with years of experience. Entering their first year are Julie Glock, Jenny Rohlf, Jenny Seacord, and Tina Wild, who will help to create a force to be reckoned with. Our one senior Mary Essary is helping to lead the team with her drive and hard work. At this time in the season, we are undefeated in dual meets and have won both the Hartland and Canton Invitational.

Equestrian

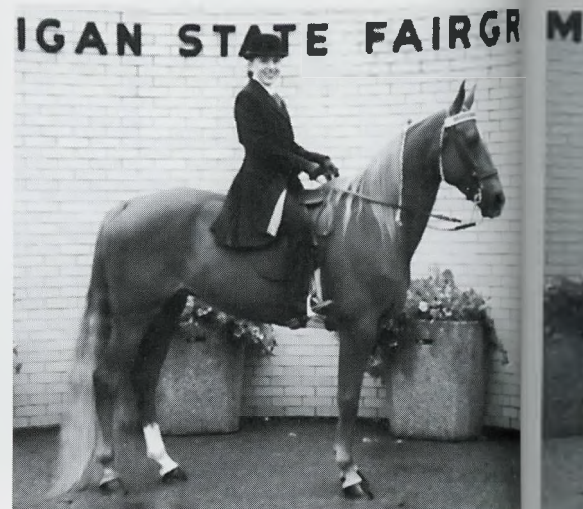

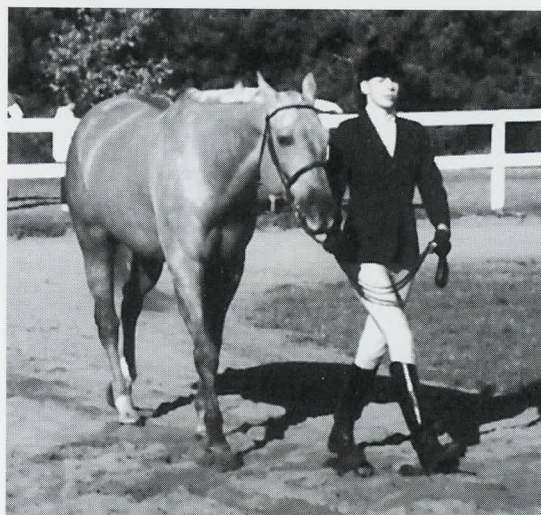

The 96-97 Equestrian Team had another amazingly successful year as they became both District 1 Champs and State Reserve Champs for the second year in a row. After breezing through the first three meets at Milford High School's arena, the Equestrian Team traveled to the Michigan State fairgrounds for four days of competition at the State Championships. Former Mustang Heidi Megdan coached the team to its wins through the rain, cold and smoking transformers that threatened to blow up. While lack of electricity kept the events delayed, the team perservered to finish in victory. The team would like to thank the Megdan's for the use their comfy camper that, along with large quantities of stew, made a hard weekend a little more bearable. Tiffany Bench, Captain Jennifer Cole, Anna Rebori, Natalie Thomson and Emma Wilkiemeyer can be proud of being the most succesful Equestrian team in Mustang history.

Tennis

The Women's tennis team had an outstanding season this year. We won division in dual matches, then captured a conference win in the tournament. Being only one point away from making it to the State competition, this was the best year in along time.

The Men's tennis team had an extraordinary season this year. Finishing first in the conference, and second in the districts we did quite well. We also, went to states and succeeded in winning a couple of matches. Overall, we had a great year and look forward to the '97 season

Women's Golf

Our season started this year on March 10 at the Oasis dome. We started match play when we returned from Spring Break. Last year's trip to Michigan State was memorable. We played the tournament in rain and fierce winds. As last year, we spent some Friday mornings at Denny's, fueling up for our day-long tournaments. We had many returning players this year, and a successful season.

Track & Field

Men's Track

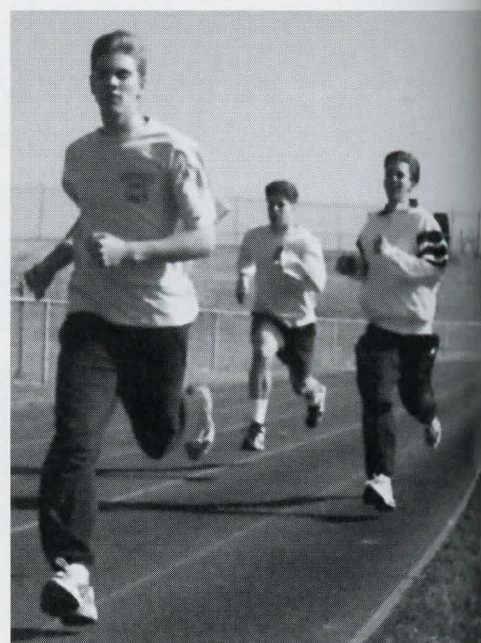

The men's track and field team had another successful season, sending eight runners to the State Championships in Midland. This year the team made winners out of a diverse group of runners including newcomers and veterans. Team members got the best sun-tans in the conference due to the great tradition lying around on the pole vault mats. The 1997 men's track and field team continued to honor the successes of the past.

Women's Track

The Northville women's track team improved upon last year's record with an influx of young talent. Captains Lauren Gugala, Lisa Armstrong, and Dana Chemotti were enthusiastic about the large number of girls that were on the team this year. Returning from last year were state qualifiers Melissa Poole and Christina Chase. Coach Chris Cronin and Coach Karin Nelson were excited to have a third coach, Aimee Papler, on hand for the 1997 campaign.

Men's Soccer

This soccer play exhibits Northville's speed and agility.

The 1996-1997 soccer season was decent despite the tremendous talent lost the year before. The Varsity team, led by Sam Vida and Adam Tibble, finished fourth in the division and seventh in the conference. All conference honors went to Sam Vida. All division went to Adam Tibble. Honorable Mentions went to Eric Arnold, J.R. Graff, David Terakedis, and Andrew Weyer. The Junior Varsity team was strong this year, led by Junior Chad Obenauf and Sophomores Luke Leftwich and Dan Lionas. The Junior Varsity team finished the season with a record of 7-6-1.

Women's Soccer

The women's varsity and JV soccer teams performed very well this season. They came together not only as teammates, but also as friends. Varsity opened up the season facing the state's top teams, including Brighton, Salem, and Canton. The Northville girls proved they were among the elite. The team will face a tremendous loss next season with eight seniors graduating, including captains Kristin Baja, Meghan Cauzillo, and Lyndsay Huot. The teams will miss their strong leadership, but looks forward to a fresh start next year.

Men's Baseball

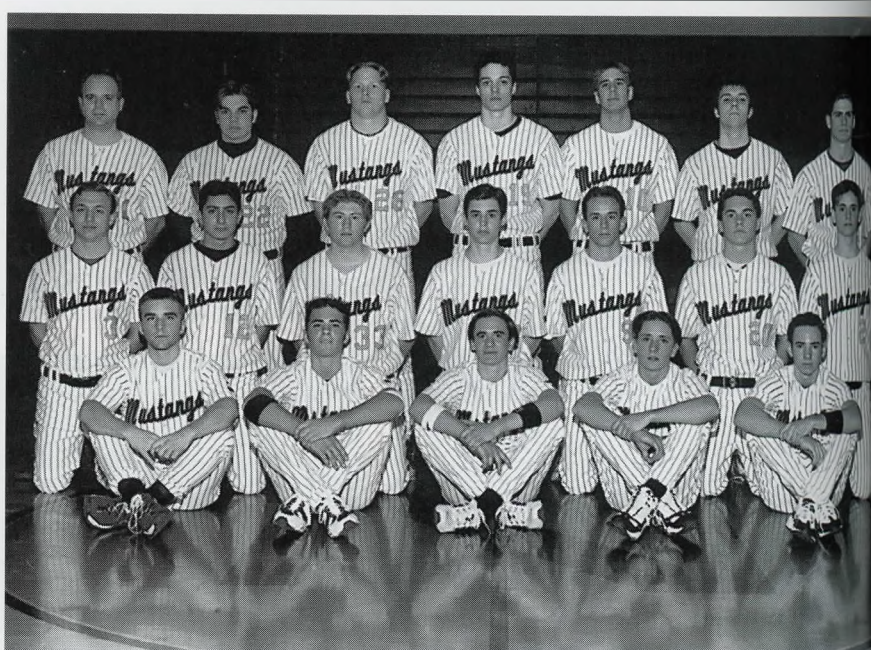

This year's Men's baseball season looks promising. With eight returning Seniors, the team has already started off on the right foot. This experienced team hopes to continue on last year's successes. Last year's team was the best in fourteen years, winning the conference for the first time since 1982. The loss of last year's strong Seniors has left the team hoping lots of hard work and practice will make up for this loss of talent. Led by captains Erik Swietlik, Joe Willey, and Bill Sekerka, the Men's baseball team should be well prepared for the upcoming challenges.

Women's Softball

The 1996 Women's Softball team at Northville High School had a strong show in the Western Division of the WLAA, ranking third. Winning all the games against Novi, the Varsity team had a strong showing against our big rival school. Erin Tovey and Michelle Menghini led the team in batting percentage, and the team appreciates their return. The softball team hopes for a successful season, with captains Sarah Johnson, Erin Tovey, and Michelle Menghini. The team would like to thank Coach Karen Baird for all her patience.

Pep Club

1996 and 1997 have been the best years yet for Pep Club. Along with our membership, our participation within the school has grown. Although Basketball and Football are where most of our attention has been in past years, this year we branched out to support all of the NHS teams. Pep Club took a new direction, donating the majority of the games to other organizations. Both the Basketball and Football stands were run by classes, clubs, and sports. We also donated money to the Helping Hands program. This money was spent on food and clothes. As the years go on and Pep club becomes a more recognized club hopefully all teams will feel the support of the NHS Pep club. GO NHS!

Seniors

Our Senior year was filled with many amazingly productive fund-raisers. Two Sundays a month, students, parents and teachers volunteered to work two concession stands at the Pontiac Silverdome for the home Lions Games. Additionally, 30 students and parents chose to work a mentally enriching monster truck rally - Hail Bearfoot! Without such a hard working, optimistic group of individuals, the class of 1997 wouldn't have been nearly as successful.

Because of students, parents, teachers, and class leaders, the class of 1997 became the most successful financially as well as the most spirited. With prom on May 23 at the Ritz-Carlton Dearborn, our high goals were fulfilled, as set in the 1994 Palladium Freshman paragraph. Through our final year, students and class leaders took the initiative to unite and become the exception - the finest and most successful class to date.

Senior Reflections

The sun beats down the mountain climber's back as she makes her way up to the peak of the mountain. For days she has struggled through the thick trees and rocky terrain, trying to honor what she set out to do. One thunderous night, as the rain poured down, she contemplated the purpose of reaching the top. Many times she thought of turning back and admitting defeat. The only thing that urged her forward was the thought of reaching her ultimate goal. As she takes her last step, she anticipates the glory of gazing at the world in a new perspective.

What would you do after you've climbed the mountain? Would you climb back down or would you expand your horizons? We, as Seniors, have come to a point in our lives where we must decide the fate of our future. After struggling through our twelve year quest for knowledge, we must go forth to discover our individual potentials. As Senior year draws to a close, this is a time to reflect upon our past. Yet as we reach our first milestone, we must continue to challenge ourselves and set new goals.

The climber stands on the peak of the mountain and looks out over the misty tree tops, soaking in the beautiful surroundings. She realizes that she must use her journey to better herself as an individual. It is not the goal that matters: it is what she accomplishes afterwards that will benefit her in the times ahead. It is with pride that we Seniors look back on our achievements and use them in our climb towards the future.

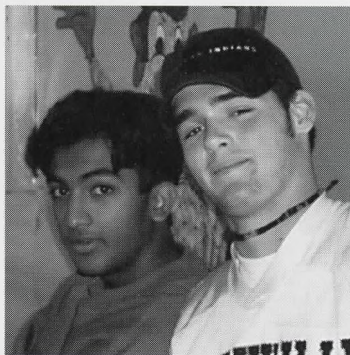

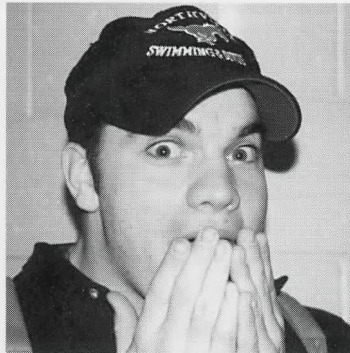

Kirk Lee meditates on the complexity of his Senior year.

Finally a Senior, Abby Haxton proudly looks ahead to her future.

Jeff Arenz knows this will be one of the last times he can show his NHS spirit.

Sarah Matthews looks back at her Senior accomplishments with excitement.

Reflections about The Past

"I wish I was six years old again: everything was so much easier then."

"I loved it as a kid, when popularity wasn't a question."

The Present

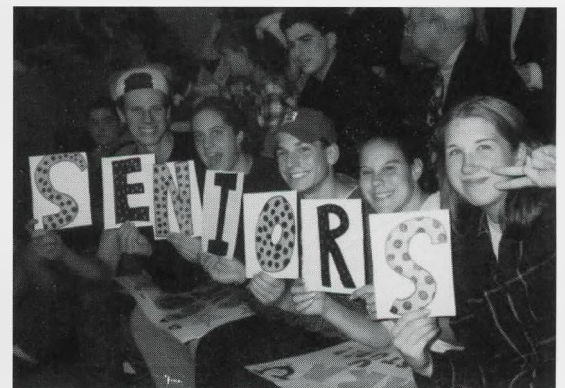

"My best experience at NHS? You're joking, right?"

"I've been waiting to be a Senior for four years. I'm glad I finally made it!"

The Future

"I hope to have a good time in college, and learn more about myself in the process."

"I want to die with integrity."

Throughout the year, the Seniors have continuously expressed class enthusiasm, such as at the home swim meet.

Seniors 1997

SENIOR

The legacy began as we walked in the door;
The first group of students never together before.
Patriots and Raiders we were at the start.
We united as Mustangs; how great thou art.
Falling apart, it seemed quite absurd -
Our styrofoam stagecoach rolled into third.
Cramming for our first finals was a stress on the brain.
There was more time to study, though, thanks to snow and freezing rain.
We dressed up for spirit week, painted murals on the walls,
The pep rally was cancelled by the threat of super balls.
Jim Tuman talked about the danger of pills,
Getting his point across by ripping dollar bills.
Was it Weiner or Wallace? She changed her name that year.
One thing's for certain, though, "Ralph Redmond Here".
Bidding adieu to Mr. King and vice principals past,
In seemed so ironic - Freshman year went by fast.

No longer the youngest, tenth grade had begun.
Our confidence rose, it was time to have fun.
The hallways were striped green, blue, and red.
Wednesdays were shortened - more time in bed.
We constructed a pyramid with a mummy and sand.
But it didn't get fourth. We even lost to the band!
Classes were harder, our workload was big.
We bisected angles and dissected pigs.
For money we sold doughnuts right before vacation.
We had pop bottle drives and car washes with a lot of donations.
Our Hula-Viking mural took third place.
We ran the week as Sophomores, the first of this case.
Lori Stewart came in and told us to get along.
We shouted into the open mike and sang a Whitney Houston song.
The class of '95 left, as we knew they would.
'But don't you worry, cuz it's all good.'

POEM

As we finally shifted into our upper class roles,
Prestige and success were our ultimate goals.
Our elephant float suffered a painful defeat
To seniors who felt that they had to cheat.
We learned the Macarena in Ms. Wireman's class.
You put your hands on your hips and shake your - booty.
Baby oil on the ramp, it was hard not to slip.
When era day came, we dressed up 60's hip.
We stressed as we studied, the ACT was a bore.
The proficiency test was pointless, "I'm a novice in all four?"
The Promise Keepers came and we worked at the dome.
Made our last money drop and finally went home.
As Junior year ended, o'er the school we would reign.
A new year would start with more power to gain!

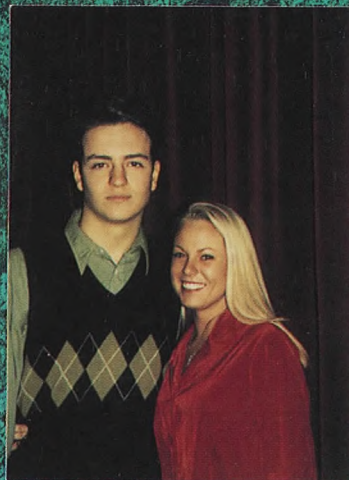

We were seniors already, how fast the time flew.
Scholarships and college applications were due.
Our mystery machine was a real show stopper.
It took first prize, rolling over their chopper.
At Lions' games we worked at stands 309 and 308.
Prom at the Ritz - we knew it was fate.
On the trip to Degas, we went AWOL.
We ventured around Chicago, just ask Mrs. Hall.
Bearfoot and Gravedigger made the trash cheer.
We took all their money selling hot dogs and beer.
Our Pumpkin's 'Landslide' dream finally came true.
We thought about recounting, but decided not to.
Our final semester had started, Spring break would come soon -
On a cruise, Stray Burro Town, or a trip to Cancun.
Spirit week was rocked by Axl and Slash.
We ripped holes in our jeans for the 80's bash.
After four years of planning, our prom was first class.
Most beautiful prom, what more could you ask?
So it is written, here our past has been told.
Our hearts doth Northville High School forever hold.

Juniors

The Junior Class has been very busy with car washes over the summer, concession stands in the Fall, and are currently preparing to take over the Lion's games. We have had lots of support from our Junior parents at all of the fundraisers and are very grateful for the effort. Thank you to all those Juniors who made Spirit Week and Homecoming a huge success. Way to go '98!

Sophomores

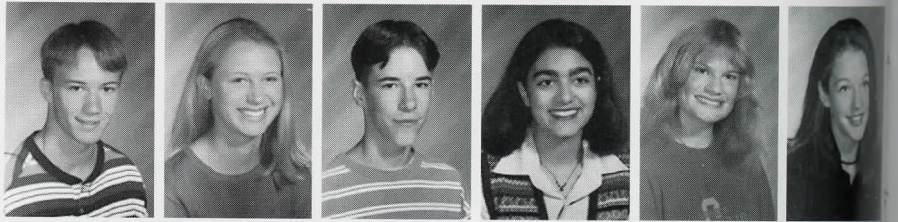

The Sophomore class had a busy and prosperous year. For Homecoming the Sophomores took third place with their brilliantly designed Smurf float. A record number of students participated in Spirit week and fundraising events, which included concession stands, flower sales, hot chocolate and cookie sales, a cider and donut sale, can and bottle drives and face painting at the Victorian festival. The Sophomore class officers put a lot of time and energy into making this year successful. Officers include President Christina Chase, Vice President Nikki LaLaonde, Secretary Kelly DeLeonardis, and Treasurer Katie Spillane. The future looms open before us, facing us with many challenges. With luck we will be able to look back on today with pride on all that we have accomplished.

Freshmen

The ninth grade year is very unique. Coming in from the middle schools with cliques already formed and trying to combine with people from the other middle school is one of the many challenges that ninth graders face. Another challenge is coming up with fund-raisers that are workable and profitable. Fortunately, this class has been very good at overcoming both of those challenges. The ninth grade class has attempted and profited from several fund-raisers, such as working at the Victorian Festival, football games, varsity basketball games, selling class T-shirts, and various other activities. We are very lucky to be the class of 2000, the class that will ring in the new century at NHS. And judging by what has already been accomplished in our Freshman year, we will be remembered for much more than just ringing in the new century.

Brian Thomas is deep in thought.

Northville High School students work towards the achievement of their goals by joining clubs and organizations.

Members of Student Congress put their minds together to come up with the quickest solution to this spider web obstacle.

After a challenging day of competition, the group gathers for a short camera break.

Student Congress

With officers Tina Juntunen, Andy Weiss, Katacia Williams, Sara Cooley, Julie Damico, and all 25 class Representatives, Student Congress leaped off to a great start this year! Homecoming, with its "Cartoons" theme, was one of our best ever. Much hard work and time went into making the entire Homecoming week a success.

Keeping our purpose, "to serve the student body and keep them informed," in mind, we traveled to Camp Tamarack to spend a day completing different obstacles by using teamwork. Probably most memorable of all was the high ropes course and the threat of falling.

Around Christmas time Student Congress decided to become involved in charity and sponsored two families through the Helping Hands project. Buying toys, clothes, food, and appliances, we provided a very Merry Christmas for some very needy children and families.

Student Congress this year was definitely one of the best and most involved ever.

Row 5: Matthew G. Emaus, Greg Last, Christine Herndon, Adam Tibble, Keith Droz, Steve Traicoff, Julie P. Piestrzeniewicz, Josh Brugeman, Jason Wolbers.

National Honor Society

National Honor Society is a service organization made up of students that maintain high standards in both the classroom and the community. Members consist of students that have a minimum grade point average of 3.5 and have been deemed by teachers a positive influence on the school. Under student leadership and that from sponsors, Christ Cronin and Lisa Rhode-Barbeau, students volunteer to work in a variety of community service programs. Some of these programs have included bell ringing for the Salvation Army and a canned food drive during the holidays. Other events have included local work at Northville's annual Victorian Festival. Students must meet the GPA requirement and complete 12 credits of volunteer service to remain in the society.

The National Honor Society Flower Sale during Homecoming week is always a successful fundraiser.

Adopt-A-Student

This year's Adopt-A-Student program was once again very successful. This organization, led by Mr. Maile, helps to make the transitions easier for students new to the school district. The members are matched up with the new students based on interests. The Adopt-A-Student volunteers help the new students find their way to their classes, provide a familiar face during the first few lunch periods, and guide them through the first after-school activities. Both "adopters" and "adoptees" make new friends and benefit from this experience.

Exchange Students

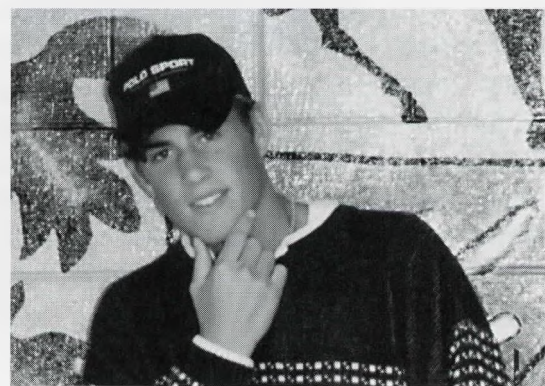

Dominik Kassera, a Junior exchanging from Germany, finds, America's weather similar to Germany's, so he has had a smooth transition here. He loves American food, especially the food his host family's mom cooks. His visit to the United States included stops to Niagara Falls and Washington D.C.. He says his vacation in Disney World, "makes me feel like a child again." He would like to work here in the future and come back to visit his friends and host parents. When asked about school, he said "German school is more difficult, but school here is much more interesting." The best part of America is being able to get a driver's license at such a young age, "When I go to Germany, I will be able to drive all my friends around."

Senior Yuka Omi is from Japan. She is very enthusiastic about being an exchange student, but says that there is "too much fattening stuff to eat" in America. Yuka's class schedule at NHS is very challenging, with two math classes and even another foreign language, Spanish. Some of the activities which Yuka enjoys in her free time are talking with friends, meeting new people and making origami. Yuka loves traveling and hopes to be an exchange student again in college. With her high spirit and colorful personality, she shall surely be admitted to any country of her choice.

Federica Rogora is an exchange student from Italy. This is her first time in United States, but she has traveled throughout Europe. Federica says that during her stay here, she has had interesting experiences at the many activities that are available at Northville High School. The only thing she has to complain about is not being able to go out late at night. When asked about how Italians are different from Americans, Federica commented on how people here organize their days differently, such as having a small informal lunch and a bigger dinner with the family. Perhaps Federica defines everything perfectly with her quote, "Everyday is like something new...a surprise."

Fredrik Berg, an exchange student from Sweden, has traveled to many places including Thailand, England, Denmark, Finland, and the most recent being the United States. He would like to come back in two years to see colleges and visit with his friends. His most interesting experience here has been football. He enjoys the sport and likes to play it in his spare time. Fredrik finds that he doesn't like the school system here because no one is allowed to leave and schedules are the same every day. He says that American parents are stricter than Swedish parents. He sums it up by saying, "This is the best experience I've ever had in my life."

Drama Club: Tina Juntunen, Nick Barnes, Sadie Vince, Megan Heimstra, Chad Schaffer, Laura Geist, Rachel Oprea, Neil Harrington, Andy Manorf, Silvia Chang, Michelle Russell, Sara Johnson, Michael Ramian, Jeff Nelson, Kerry Pigott, Kim Edge.

To Speak ...

Forensics

Drama Club members look startled by the sudden flash of the camera.

The Forensics team this year made top finishes in the Dramatic Duo, Oral Interpretation and Oratorical Categories. The team was welcomed by many new faces who met the challenge with confidence and poise. Individual team members consistently took first at each Detroit Catholic Forensics League meet. Nightly practice sessions with Coach Cheryl Gazlay built up the team's speaking strength.

The many changes have made this year a rebuilding year for the Forensics team. Fortunately, the energetic coach and excited team members have made the season fun and full of hope. The team looks forward to sending qualifiers Shalene Jha, Adam Galea, Anne Wang, and Wendy Tao to represent the state of Michigan at the national competition in Baltimore, Maryland during Memorial Day weekend.

The Forensics team displays their sweeping number of trophies at the highly competitive trophy tournament in April.

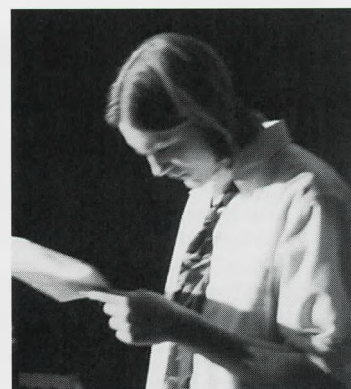

...Or Not to Speak

Drama Club

A funny thing happened when we were selecting a name for the Drama Club. One student suggested that we just call it "Cauliflower!" Everyone laughed, but the food metaphor is somewhat appropriate. If one thinks of this vegetable as art of a meal full of interesting and exciting flavors, one can understand the experience of a drama club meeting.

Like any new dish,

each meeting is a little different with its unique blend of delicacies. Chef Tina might lead an object improvisation one week, while Chef Lars stages a voice-mime game the next. Sometimes the activities blend into a common theme. Like cauliflower, each member of the club adds to the feast of flavors making up this dish we call the Drama Club.

Chad Schaffer practices his lines.

Romeo and Juliet

Two "star crossed lovers" lives began
While a feud between two families ran.
Young Romeo blossomed into a man
But to have Juliet, never he can.

The children's paths crossed at a festival of fun
For the Capulets and friends, of which Montagues were none.
Yet Romeo crept in and forever was stunned,
For there stood Juliet, fair as the sun.

They married and vowed that together they'd stay
'Twas kept secret to Friar Lawrence's dismay.
But, Tybalt slays Mercutio, and though fortunes scream "Nay"
Romeo seeks revenge, Tybalt died that day.

Off to Mantua Romeo fled,
And heartbroken Juliet would rather be dead
Than obey her father and marry Paris instead.
Scared and confused, to the friar's cell she did head.

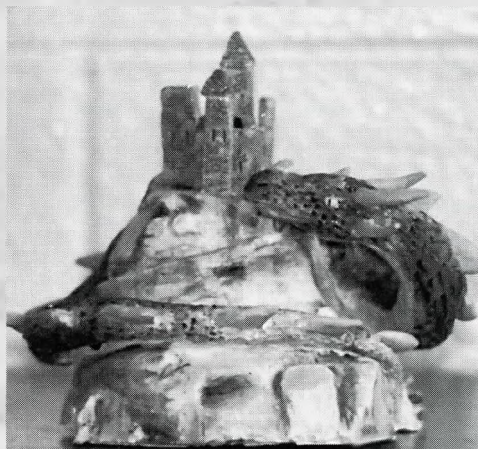

Sleeping in a crypt melancholy and low,
Romeo saw her lifeless body, now forever in woe.
Poison took his life just as Juliet arose.
With her love lost, a knife in her heart she does throw.

The townspeople arrived and saw their two friends
Angered they creid, "Families make amends!"
Montague, Capulet, here's where the fighting ends.
Forgiveness is the message this tragedy sends.

Charlotte's Web

In a little country,
Wilbur can not help but frown.
Wilbur needs a friend right now,
And Charlotte comes, bing, bang, pow!
Now all is fine and dandy mostly,
Until Wilbur finds out,
He may become a grocery!
So Charlotte thinks and thinks and thinks,
Almost driving herself to the brink.
Then she gets it, right away,
I know how to make little Wilbur stay!
She thinks and works on webs to build,
So little Wilbur will not be killed.
When Wilbur gains the public eye,
Charlotte now can rest and die.
But Charlotte leaves so many babies,
Wilbur can not help but think that maybe...
His own life will be surrounded by friends
Until the end.

Romeo and Juliet

A tragedy written during Elizabethan times
Tells of atrocious young love and feuding family crimes
Lord Capulet and Lord Montague live in bitter hate
Unaware that in the end, this will seal their children's fate

Romeo and Juliet met with love at first sight
Carelessly, they fell in love, not hesitant in the slight
Due to their family's resentful background
They secretly engaged in a marriage cleverly bound

With the help of Romeo's friar and Juliet's nurse
They attempted to shatter this ancient family curse
But instead of the long awaited and beautiful peace
Tybalt's death, cause by Romeo, will make his freedom cease

With Romeo gone, Juliet lost her love for breath
The Friar assisted her in faking her own death
A tragic mistake left two dead lovers side by side
Forever will their star-crosses memories abide

~Eunice Zhou

Through the Eyes of an Outcast

Alone in the hall,
Smiles, but most seem forced.
Only a small handful
of friends,
No-one understands.

Sitting in class
different from everyone else.
You know the answers,
don't dare raise your hand-
then you'd be the 'goody goody'
No-one really knows how it is.

You try to talk to friends,
they listen - but only hear.
No-one understands.

Life ahead seems bleak -
do I want to keep trying?
Is everything worth it?
No-one understands.

Parents who don't really listen to me,
a father who doesn't call.
A mother who doesn't realize
And who never tries to see.
Relatives who are busy and a brother far away.
No-one understands.

I see people smile and laugh - hanging with their friends - whiching I had someone to talk to, needing someone who cares.
No-one understands.

Feelings of worthlessness
Prevalent; all mine.
Don't worry about me -
"I'm all right", "I'll be fine"
No-one understands.

Envious of people who I should be proud of - Jealous of what they do. I wish
I could be more like them -
What should I do?

I try to go on, need to have some fun. Friends ask how I am, but they don't really see what's going on.
No-one understands.

No-one knows how hard I try - not to be flighty
but to be nice, friendly
Some scorn because of my looks,
But no-one knows how much I hurt.
Does anyone understand?

Fall Play and Spring Musical

The Fall Play: the fall play gave NHS students a chance to portray Seventeenth Century characters from the play The Crucible, by Arthur Miller. The success is do to Rachel Oprea, Scott Galea, Silvia Chang, Megan Hiemstra, Caroline Arnold, Melissa Witcher, Kerry Pigott, Sadie Vince, Angela Maile, Nick Barnes, Amber Youngblood, Chad Schaffer, Mathew Gillis, Tina

SADD

This year SADD has done several activities and we have kept ourselves very busy! In the fall we began with our annual pizza sale at the Northville Victorian Festival. This was a wonderful fundraiser and a great way to meet people in our chapter. Then we participated in the homecoming parade. We were very grateful to those students who donated their trucks to be painted. This gave us a chance to get covered in paint and have a great time. This year's haunted forest walk was surprising. The SADD set ran well for one night and the students who participated had a great time. Then came the SADD officer and chair person's annual trip to Shanty Creek. Our stay from Saturday morning to Monday afternoon taught us lot about the fundamentals of SADD. The Friday before the holiday break SADD put red ribbons and "care cards" on all the lockers in the school, to remind students not to drink and drive during the holiday season. Furthermore, we had a great time on our grim reaper day. We showed students how many deaths per day happen due to drinking and driving. To conclude our activities, we went to the elementary school to teach the students about drinking and drugs. SADD would like to thank all that helped out this year and best of luck in the future. Please continues sending out our message - "Don't Drink and Drive!"

Rotary Interact

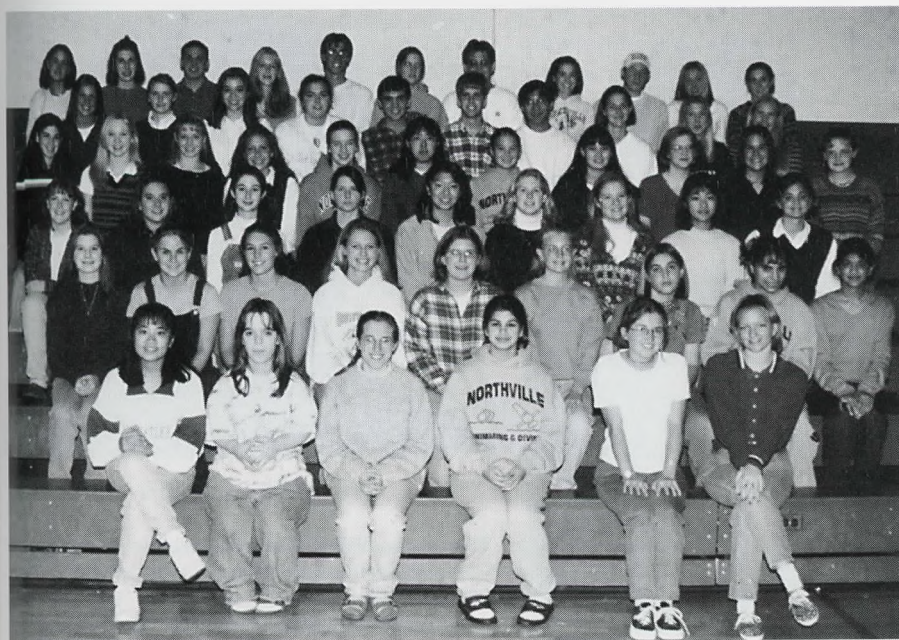

The Rotary Interact Club is growing in its mission to help others locally and internationally. Excitingly, the club's membership increased greatly this year, making Interact's third year better than ever. More members meant that an increase of projects were thought up and successfully carried out.

For the club's international projects, the group wrapped up the book drive from last year, packing the books and shipping them to Ghana. Next, Rotary ventured into an orthopedic equipment drive in the spring. The hope for this project was to collect, clean, and repair used equipment from disabled children in the area and redistribute it to children in third world countries.

As for local service, the group continued their consistent visits to the Whitehall Convalescent Home and their visits to Ann Arbor Soup kitchens. Also, the club helped Playscape raise money for a new playground by wrapping Christmas presents at Twelve Oaks Mall.

Rotary Interact has had a great year and is gaining momentum with its growing membership and dedication. Rotary Interact is well on its way towards bringing together the students of Northville and the community.

Peer Mediation

The Peer Mediators at NHS would like you to know a little about the program. This is our first year in existence as a class offered at NHS. Last year the peer mediation program was a voluntary group of students who met after school. Peer Mediation is a process where the students identify, negotiate, and develop solutions to conflicts that arise during the school day. The mediators undergo extensive training in a structured process.

How does Peer Mediation benefit the school?

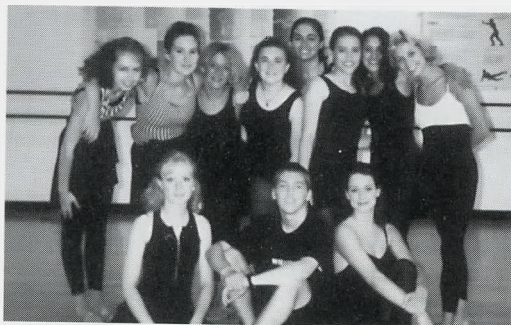

1. An atmosphere of peaceful co-existence and a culture of cooperation is developed.

2. The students learn problem-solving skills and approaches to conflict reason.

Two weeks of my summer vacation were spent at Adrian College studying dance. My intensive teacher, Martha Petrie, was the greatest artistic inspiration I could've hoped for. Besides a fresh new attitude towards life, I left Adrian with a greater acceptance of my peers. I am still maintaining wonderful friendships. Thank you to Susan Couzends for nominating me for the experience of a lifetime!

Last summer, I spent two weeks at Adrian College studying Architecture and Design. I studied the importance of integrating architecture with environment. I also spent time with peer groups and other activities like going to the wetlands. The two weeks I spent at Adrian College were enjoyable. 1996 European trips

The 1996 French and German trip was a great success, despite a few unpleasant incidents that occurred both at home and abroad. Our first stop in London taught us to work with our friends, as a Tube strike left us without transportation. The new Chunnel took us to Paris, where we all received a taste of French culture. Next we experienced an overnight train, arriving in Nice in the morning. After basking in the sun on the French Riviera, we traveled to Florence, Italy. On the way we stopped in Pisa to view the famous Leaning Tower. In Florence many of us enjoyed a local discotheque. Next, in Lucerne, Switzerland, we admired the beautiful scenery and found the city amazingly clean. The trip's last leg took us to Germany. First we visited Heidelberg, and then traveled on to Koblenz. In Koblenz and Cologne we finished our shopping, knowing the trip was coming to a close. Departing from the Frankfurt airport, we left with wonderful memories that we will always remember. We would like to thank Darrell, our couriur, the teachers, and the chaperones for making this trip a success.

On June 25, 1996, a group of Northville High School students travelled to Europe on the Spanish trip. In London they visited Westminster Abbey, the Tower of London, and Buckingham Palace. The group also caught a showing of "Mousetrap". In France they took in the sights of the Eiffel Tower, the Louvre, Notre Dame, and Versailles. The cuisine, including salmon mousse, was delicious. In Madrid the group stopped at the Prado Museum for a look at some beautiful paintings. They took a bus to Toledo, Segovia, and the Valley of the Fallen. In Seville, they walked through the Moorish Alcazar and toured the Alhambra in Granada. They broke it down at a small disco and rode the waves of the Mediterranean. The trip definitely produced many friendships and memories that will not be forgotten.

Spanish Club

The 1996-97 Spanish Club had many activities this year. One of our first trips was enjoying authentic Mexican dishes at Old Mexico. The members and our Sponser, Ms. Dyer, listened to Mariachi music while we ate. The Spanish Club also celebrated the Day of the Dead with a fiesta. We broke a piñata and sang Spanish Christmas songs around the holidays. The club also went to see "Evita" together, and participated in the Foreign Language Week activities. It was a very fun-filled and successful year. ¡Gracias Y Hasta luego!

Durch den Deutschen Verein erreichten Mitglieder Kenntnisse von deutschen Sitten, Ferien, und andere Ansichte der Deutschen Kultur.

Mit dem Oktoberfest begann das Jahr froh und mit viel Energie. Wir spielten Such-Mal-Was, tanzten Polka auf einem Hügel, und aßen "deutsches" Essen. Zwischen Oktober und Dezember sahen wir Filme, spielten wir Telefon und sprachen mit Austauschülern. Im Dezember hatten wir einen Adventskalenderverkauf. Einige Schüler liefen auch mit Rollschuhen, um die Kalender zu verkaufen! Wir verdienten viel Geld, womit wir uns T-shirts, einen neuen Schrank und Deutsch camp material kauften. Im diesem Monat gab es auch ein Weihnachtsfest, während dessem wir uns "Das schreckliche Mädchen" ansehen. Obwohl schlechte Anweisungen gegeben wurden (Entschuldigung!) fanden alle den rechten Weg. Später feierten wir auch Fasching. Wir trugen merkwürdige Kostüme und machten Spaß damit.

Eine entspannende Aktivität war auch die Woche, wann alle drei Sprachen zusammen arbeitet. "Foreign Language Week" hatte viel Erfolg. Das Deutsche Camp, war wie immer, wunderbar. Unsere Deutsch Klassen war wieder die Besten.

Danke sagen möchten wir auch an der beiden Lehrerinnen, Kammeraad und Fran Motz. Sie ließen uns, unsere eigenen Ideen benutzen, und sie gaben uns ein guter Verständnis der Deutschen Sprache. Man könnte sagen, daß sie uns ein Teil der Welt gegeben haben. Danke.

Examining New Cultures

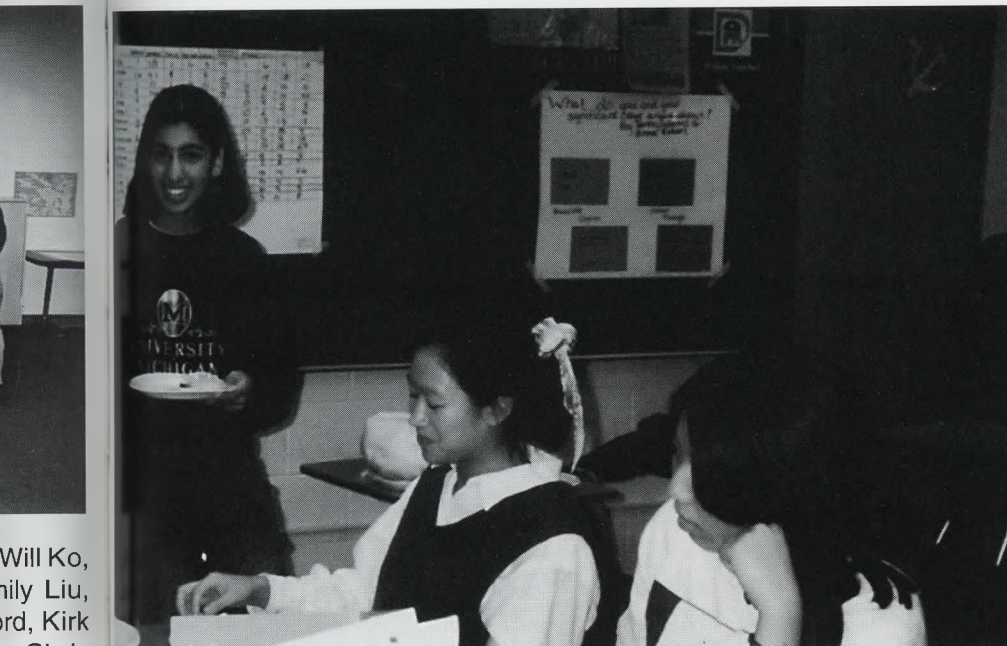

Russian Club

Students at Northville High School were given the opportunity to examine new lands by joining the Russian Club. This new club, headed by Mrs. Frankstein, explores the cities and culture of Russia. These members have the ambition and drive to take on the challenge of a third language. A new alphabet and style of grammar were daunting, but they have persevered to gain a wealth of knowledge.

ASIA Club

In its second year as an official club at Northville High School, the Association of Students Interested in Asia serves as an organization to increase multicultural awareness. After attending the 1996 Lunar New Year banquet at University of Michigan, students Aitu Pham, Kirk Lee, Wendy Tao, Gerald Liu and Jenny Huang felt inspired to initiate a club to develop more Asian unity and inform others about the Asian American culture. Mr. Ford served as an enthusiastic sponsor while more than 20 students showed up at the first meeting; thus, the ASIA club was established. Activities for the club included special speakers, potlucks, fundraisers, restaurant trips, and even a field trip to the Ann Arbor Museum of Art. ASIA club looks optimistically towards the future, taking a step forward into multiracial harmony.

Science Olympiad

Students with strong backgrounds in science participated on the Science Olympiad team. SO events require anything from a basic knowledge of Earth science to in-depth creative designing skills. Regional competition took place on March 15th and the team took first place for the third year in a row. Each team member continued to challenge themselves in order to be prepared for state competition on April 26th. Mr. Sharrar and Ms. Vala played key roles in students' successes, keeping the team on track during weekly meetings. The team hopes that next year will continue to carry on the tradition of Science Olympiad glory.

Quiz Bowl

Northville's Quiz Bowl team expanded its resources this year. For the first time, the team had its own funding, thanks to dedicated members who worked at two concession stands. It was often difficult to schedule practice times, but Monday night practices became routine. Monthly tournaments and lively competition between members helped develop quicker speeds. With excellent coaching and support from Mr. Ford, the Varsity I team finished an outstanding season in the WLAA league, defeating long-time opponent Plymouth Canton. Quiz Bowl has established a strong foundation at Northville High School.

Science Olympiad team members meet weekly to gauge their progress.

WHIP and Mustanger

Students at Northville High School bring their communication skills to an art form. Members of the WHIP and the Mustanger work hard every week to keep the student body awake and informed.

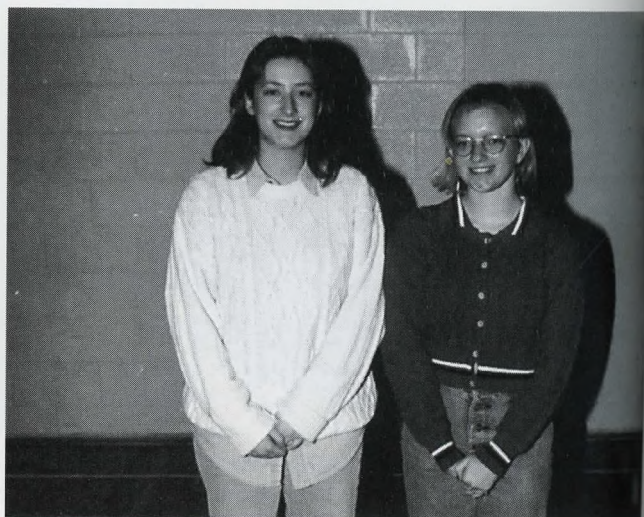

In its second successful year, the WHIP greets the sleepy-eyed students with tunes from Bob Dylan to Bob Marley every Friday morning from 7:00 am to 7:25 am. Mr. Colligan surrenders his office to the WHIP staff for these weekly broadcasts. From this headquarters of operations, DJs from the Broadcast Writing and Production class select music from the 1960's to the 1990's, write copy for their shows, and experience some of the demands of a career in radio.

Other media skills were obtained by students who contributed to the Mustanger. Led by editors Heather Wadowski and Vanja Habekovic, the staff kept students updated with school news. The Mustanger looked better than ever thanks to the photography class and the desktop publishing class. With the help of Faculty Advisor Mrs. Hall, and Ms. Eppel's Journalism class, the Mustanger continued to improve throughout the year.

Yearbook

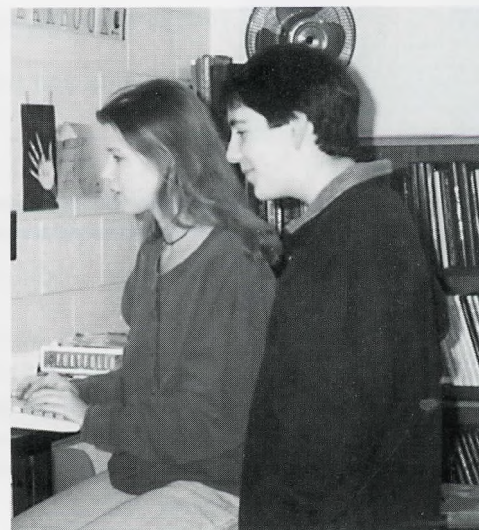

Unlike most other clubs, the Yearbook staff started working in the middle of the summer and continued throughout the year. After attending a four day workshop in July, the editors decided to create a new look for The Palladium. This year's yearbook is making the transition into the concept book idea. Instead of having the traditional six divisions, the 1997 yearbook focused on three concepts: Pride, Honor, and Achievement. Spin off themes were then created to describe NHS as accurately as possible.

The beginning of the school year marked a tremendous increase in membership. With almost sixty people, it was often difficult to find something for everyone to work on. However, this problem was solved when only a few dedicated members remained by the end of the year. With approximately ten hardworking individuals on the staff, the group stayed long into the night to meet monthly deadlines. The process of creating the 1997 Palladium was quite an adventure for both first time staff members and those with past experience. We hope that we have achieved our goal of making meaningful memories for Northville High School.

WHO MAKE YOUR WORLD

True happiness consists not in the multitude of friends, but in the worth and choice

Goal.

An end toward which effort is directed. A goal is important to have.

A mark to reach for. And if you share your goal with someone else, they can help you reach it. In fact, entire communities can have a goal that they work together to achieve.

NBD has made it our goal to be the best bank we can be. And helping you reach your goals is one way we aim to do that.

The right bank can make a difference®

Their roots spread cultivated by the rich soil of knowledge leaving behind a past of memories

The day seems as if it is closing, but in truth, a new season is just beginning. As the student body of Northville High School, we have cultivated our roots in the same soil. Battered by the stormy weather, together we face the challenges. We can reflect upon the Pride, Honor, and Achievement of this past year and see ourselves unfolding into our fullest potential. These experiences which we have shared will guide us as we blossom towards our unique and individual selves. Let us reach to the sky and venture into tomorrow.

*Friends don't let friends drive drunk.
Don't drive drunk.
Don't ride with someone who has been drinking.
Have a good time but . . . be a friend!*

"A SADD STORY"

Going to a party
to have some fun.
Opening a beer
the night's begun.
Steadily drinking
as the hours roll by,
I start to feel good
and sort of high.
Noticing a friend
stumble over my feet,
mumbling something
as he tries to speak.
Remembering he had
a lot to drink that night,
I stand and think
as he walks out of sight.
Hearing from the crowd
that he's driving home
Nobody with him—
he's all alone.
Worrying about my friend,

Trying to tell him
someone else will drive,
"That's stupid!" he yells
and tells you he's fine.
On his way home
my friend had died.
When I heard the news
I sat and cried.
Wasn't there anything
I could've done?
Because I didn't,
my friend is gone.
24,000 a year will die.
Now, aren't the statistics
a little high?
Hopefully someday
the number will go down.
If only people would realize it and spread the news around.
