

Hillside Middle School

Friends Forever

Greetings Earthlings...

A place for all sorts of education.

What a great place to be !

No mountain is too high for Blake and Kyle.

Spirit Week: October 25-29

Entertainment and Education!

Hillside Pride!

Rockets and CO2 Cars

Mr Wilson's class prepares for the big race.

State Honors Choir Auditions - Marshall, MI

Front Row: Sarah Ruth Dobson, Tollie Johnson, Shelby Davis, Carla Wetter.
Back Row: Kelley Logan, Mrs. Kopistiansky, Erica Johnson.

Academia

Reading, writing and arithmetic are accented by classes such as: Rocketry, CO2 Cars, Art, Dance, Foreign Language, Music, Physical Education, Life Skills, Meal Management, Computer Programming and Choir.

Hillside Band

Detroit Symphony Orchestra better keep an eye on these folks!

Academic Resource

Mrs. Arindaeng's students prepare some engineering marvels.

Meal Management

Now that they have learned to cook in Ms. Jones class, they should cook a buffet for all their teachers.

High School Choir visits Hillside

Some former Hillside students from the high school visit to perform seasonal music.

Dance Class

Anything from the Waltz to the Macarena, you can learn it in Ms. Shannon's dance class.

"Teaching should be such that what is offered is perceived as a valuable gift and not as a hard duty."

Albert Einstein

Art Class

Mr. Burrell's art class shows the students how anything can become art if you put your mind to it.

Computers

Students learn a wide variety of computer programs and uses in Mr. Gandolfi's computer class.

Physical Education

Physical education keeps our students healthy, happy and well-rounded.

Working hard,

or hardly working?

Girls Basketball

The 7th grade basketball team continued their unbeaten streak with an outstanding defensive performance en route to a 26-11 victory. Along the way the dominating team and on ball defense Hillside was also able to pour in 26 points. Leading the way was Kelsey Fiscus with 8 points and Rylee O'Brien with 5.

The 8th grade Hillside Raiders basketball team won a victory against Meads Mill, 30-7. It was a team effort. Defense set the tone in the first half. They maintained the lead by great rebounding by Kelly Englert, Lisa Haverkate, Maudie Smith, Shelby Temple, Johanna Poterella and Chelsea Atzinger.

Hillside vs. Meads Mill @ Meads Mill
October 6, 2004

Hillside's 7th and 8th grade girls both defeated Meads Mill in this annual game which brings the community together each year for some fun competition.

Farewell 8th Graders!

A handful of 8th graders were given a chance to share some of the memories created here at Hillside.

Final Words

"Having too much fun in my classes and then getting into trouble." - Jack Bentley

"I loved being a cheerleader and meeting lots of new friends." - Barbie Gutman

Question:
What is the best memory you have of your time at Hillside?

"I enjoyed 8th grade and sitting at lunch with all my friends." - Matt McCormick

"The best memory I have is when I was the manager of the 8th grade basketball team." - Dan Amatucci

Hillside Pride!

Go Raiders!

Hillside students and staff learn ideas to improve themselves through visitors from Komatsu, Japan in the Fulbright Master Teacher Program and Collaborative School Science Network.

Mary McKay and Dave Bartlett's students are an integral part of the success and diversity found at Hillside Middle School.

Hillside was home to this years Michigan Teacher of the Year! Mrs. Heidi Capraro received this rare honor. Congratulations Mrs. Capraro!
