WEDNESDAY.

The Semi-annual meeting of the Detroit district association was called to order at 2 p. m. June 8. Mrs. Mary C. Nind led the devotional exercises. The district chairman, Mrs. E. W. Porter, presided at all the sessions. She fills her position with ease and tact.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and the following committees appointed: On entertainments, Mrs. F. Broder and Mrs. W. L. Ely; on resolutions, Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Howel, of Detroit, and Mrs. Lyons of Pontiac.

Mrs. J. Gardner gave the address of welcome to which Mrs. E. W. Garrett of Wexford Avenue responded. Mrs. VanZile presented the greetings of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. Sarah Reed of the W. H. M. S., and Mrs. E. W. Reed of the Baptist society, to all of whom Mrs. Nind made a pleasant response.

Miss Michigny of the Central church, Y. L. S., then read a very carefully prepared paper on "Medical Missions and Trained Nurses in China and other Lands." She showed the deplorable state of medical practice in all heathen lands and the good work accomplished by the sending of educated physicians and the establishment of hospitals. No medical missionary enterprise has ever been a failure. Miss Stoflet of Flat Rock followed with a paper on "The Results of Missionary Work;" a cheering account. Miss Nind then gave an hour on missionary news having items of interest read about the work in Japan, China, Africa, and India.

At the evening session Rev. Mr. Jaquess conducted the devotional exercises and Mrs. Nind spoke for an hour on "The Missionary Unfoldings of the General Conference." She is an elderly lady of fine appearance; a ready and interesting speaker, has something to say and says it. At the close of her address Miss May Starratt recited "The Converted Brahmin."

THURSDAY.

Thursday morning devotional exercises were led by Mrs. C. T. Allen. The session was mostly occupied in hearing reports from district officers and the various auxiliaries. In general there were evidences of progress. The total membership of Detroit district is 1,367 and the receipts for six months $2,779.02. Interesting letters were read from Miss Phoebe Rowe and Miss Elsie Rothmeyer missionaries. It was decided to hold the next meeting at Lincoln Avenue church, Detroit.

In the afternoon Mrs. A. B. Stornus, led the devotional exercises and Mrs. Riddick conducted a memorial service for the eight members who had died since the last meeting.

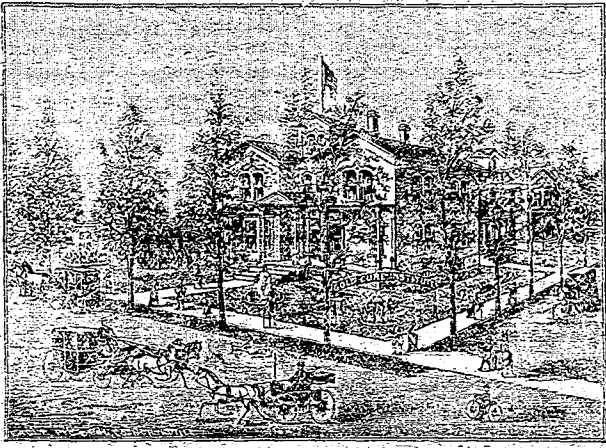

Miss Gamble then gave a very interesting talk by figures on the blackboard showing how much more could be accomplished if every member of the W. F. M. S. gave four cents a year more and especially if they gave one cent a day more.

Mrs. Robinson read the "Life Line." The main feature of the evening was the address of Rev. Dr. Drees of South America. He is a clear, forcible speaker. He showed how the southern part of this Western Hemisphere was settled by the Latin races as the Northern was by the Anglo Saxon. That there the Latin peculiarities and religion are working out their results. South America is made up mainly of ten republics. In the central portion there is a large Indian population as much pagan as any in the world. He described the missionary needs and enterprises in the field of which he has the oversight, pointing out on a map the various stations. The incidents given were intensely interesting.

At the close of this address Angie Smith recited "The Mite Box." The benediction was pronounced and most of the 65 delegates and visitors took their departure on the nine o'clock train, all apparently feeling that the meeting had been a very profitable one.

THEY SHOT.

And The Pontiac Club Holds the Championship.

The Pontiac Gun Club came over Friday to do up the Northville club and they accomplished their purpose. There was not much skill shown on either side, but when the score was added up it was found that the Indian City folks had one tally the most.

There were eleven men on a side and each one used up 25 shells, trying to smash up as many black birds. Shots of the Northville's broke 22 out of the 25—the best score made. R. C. Yerkes, one of the crack shots of the Northville club, is on the sick list which handicapped them considerably. Because the Pontiacers had one the most when Empire Frank Brown called the game the Northville's paid for the birds and aimed the Ponty's at the Park house. The following is the score made by each:

THAT CHALLENGE.

The Northville Ball Club not Afraid a Little Bit, but They Will Not Play for Money.

H. E. Springer, Manager Plymouth B. B. Club:

Your challenge to play the Northville B. B. Club for $50 excited considerable amusement here. You seek to mislead the public by charging your defeat to a partial umpire. Having fairly defeated your club in two hotly contested games we are under no obligations to play you again this season and certainly shall not for money. We would under no consideration blacklist our players by accepting such a challenge. However we will play you on your own or any other good grounds at any convenient date as amateurs should play, for sport, but not for money. We regret that all of your nine did not accept their defeat as gracefully as the majority of them did. In closing let us assure you that the umpire you name can under no circumstances umpire a game in which we play. We will accept one from any of the Athletic Associations in the state but not one who has sworn revenge on Northville for a defeat which he likewise suffered here. Respectfully

H. F. Brown, Manager.

Dr. Bennett.

Dr. Bennett, specialist, of Detroit, will be at the Macomber House on Wednesday, June 22.

WILL THEY BE DONE THE 1st OF JULY AND ARE YOU PREPARED FOR IT?

If so you ought to have a Suit of Clothes, or a Pair of Pants, that has been shrunk before it was made up, as you may have the Hoss turned on you. Our Cloth is all shrunk before it is cut and made up into Suits, and no danger of their ever shrinking, whether you get them wet or not, after they are once made up. Come and give us a call, as the Fourth is very near, and Orders coming in all the time.

Everlastingly Yours,

FOUND GUILTY.

After a fair trial, fought upon every line, detail upon detail, T. G. RICHARDSON has been Found Guilty by twelve Jurymen, good and true and by every man wearing a pair of those $1.24 Pants, and Suspenders thrown in, Of selling more Ladies Fast Black Silk Mitts at 17 cents per pair than any other dealer in Wayne County.

The defendant, upon being asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced upon him, coolly answered, "No Sir!" and now listen to the sentence:

THE SENTENCE

said the Judge, "shall be, that on this week

Saturday night, June 18th, between the hours of 7.30 and 9 o'clock local time, you shall sell 100 PATTERNS of CHALLIE DRESS GOODS every pattern to contain ten (10) yards each AT 29 CENTS PER PATTERN."

According to this judgment the above sale opens Saturday night at 7.30 o'clock and continues for an hour and a half, or until 9 o'clock local time. Positively none of these goods will be sold until that time, thus giving all an equal chance for a good selection, but don't wait, but everybody come at that hour for THEY WILL GO QUICK.

N. B.— In the Clothing Department we have another lot of those Pants, the same as Jurors wore, at $1.24 and a pair of Suspenders goes with every pair.

Used in Millions of Homes—40 Years the Standard

THE days of natural gas are numbered. The supply was greatest two years ago, and though new discoveries have been made since, some even of these have failed within that time.

THEY of Jerusalem abide with us ever—they who, having eyes, yet see not; they who, having understanding, do not comprehend the fact and truths before them.

THE worst of calm philosophy is that it reduces life to a dead level. If we are not hurt, neither are we pleased; if we do not weep, we do not smile; and many would rather choose the two tropical extremes than take temperate and the middle course.

It is claimed that a bullet from a new small calibre rifle will pass completely through a tree and kill the man who has concealed himself behind it, and will also shoot six men standing one behind another, so that it behoves the army desiring to win to begin shooting first and shoot pretty straight.

BOSTON is privileged to wear about its neck the phylactery of culture that shall ward off all the hated evils of intellectual immaturity, but so protected from the contagion of material and anesthetic minds it should the more courageously and charitably go forth into the world to discover if perchance the Pierian graces, have not found somewhere else a spot to rest them and a people to bless in some measure.

CANADA acts on the customary English idea that all the advantages are and should be on her side, and other people be made to contribute to her prosperity and greatness. She sticks to her tolls on American vessels passing through the Welland and Cawana-gawa canals, forgetful of the fact that if we put similar tolls on Canadian vessels passing through the Sault Ste. Marie and St. Clair Flats, which have cost the United States a great deal more money than she has expended on her canals, her vessel owners would find themselves in a bad way for profits.

THERE is a marked demand from all sections of the country for better roads. An observant writer attributes this in no small measure to the extending use of that ingenious vehicle, the bicycle. If the supposition be correct, civilization will owe much to the inventor of the phenomenon that stands upright when it would naturally fall over.

THERE are other interests in this world quite as valuable as those that are measured by dollars and cents, and if we will only turn to the consideration of these interests it may perhaps reconcile us to the cost of the European exodus. Art and literature and learning, wider experience of men and countries and governments, closer contact with varied civilizations and with the results of centuries of the world's best endeavor—these are some of the commodities which the transatlantic contingent gets in return for its money. And it would be rather a dangerous experiment for the Gradgrind with his little budget of irrelevant facts to undertake to argue that these gains are not worth the having and not worth many times the cost.

TALMAGE PREACHES ON THE NEW RECRUITS

Who Have Put on the Armor of His Fold—Farewell Sermon Before His Departure for the Land of the Nihilist and Czar.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 12, 1892.—Dr. Talmage prefaced his sermon this morning with a statement to the effect that he would sail on Wednesday next for Europe and might be able to be present at the distribution in the famine-stricken districts of Russia of the Christian Herald relief cargo, consisting of 5,000,000 pounds of flour and other supplies which goes out this week on the steamship Leo, chartered for the purpose.

There is in this text a great rattle of shields, and helmets, and swords. Soldiers are getting ready for battle. We have had recently in this church new enlistments, and I shall address myself to those in this and other churches who are putting on the armor of God, and who may feel themselves to be as yet only raw recruits.

Now when a young Christian enters the church, God does not ask him to retire from the world. The anchorite that lives on acorns is no nearer heaven than the man who lives on partridge and wild duck. Isolation is not demanded by the Bible. A man may use the world with the restriction of not abusing it.

My first word of counsel is, hold before your soul a very high model. Do not say, "I wish I could pray like that man, or speak like this man, or have the consecration of this one." Say: "Here is the Lord Jesus Christ, a perfect pattern. By that I mean, with God's grace, to shape all my life." In other words you will never be any more a Christian than you strive to be.

My second word of counsel is, hold before your soul a very high model. Do not say, "I wish I could pray like that man, or speak like this man, or have the consecration of this one." Say: "Here is the Lord Jesus Christ, a perfect pattern. By that I mean, with God's grace, to shape all my life." In other words you will never be any more a Christian than you strive to be.

My next word of counsel is that you be actively employed. I see a great many Christians with doubts and perplexities and they seem to be proud of them. Their entire Christian life is made up of gloom, and they seem to cultivate that spiritual despondency, when I will undertake to say that in nine cases out of ten spiritual despondency is a judgment of God upon idleness. Who are the happy people in the church to-day? The busy people. Show me a man who professes the religion of Jesus Christ and is idle, and I will show you a unhappy man.

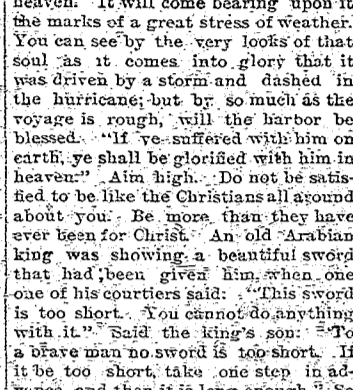

There is a fountain filled with blood, Drawn from Immanuel's veins; And sinners plunged beneath that flood Lose all their guilty stains. The dying thief rejoiced to see, That fountain in his day; And there may I, though vile as he, Wash all my sins away.

OLDEST HOUSE OF WORSHIP IN THE LAND.

It is Located in Norfolk, Va., and Has Undergone Many Changes—The Grave of General Bridger Stands in the Cemetery.

Some time ago an interesting article appeared in a New York paper describing the oldest meeting house in the United States. It was said to have been built in 1638 in Connecticut.

THE OLD CHURCH AS IT IS TO-DAY. The date of its erection was cut into the hard, old bricks at two different points. It was the second church built in Virginia. The first one, that at Jamestown, has long since gone to ruin.

Three times it has been roofed, and it is now undergoing repairs of a very substantial and attractive nature and bids fair to be useful as a church for the next three centuries. Memorial windows have been constructed for it in England, and when again in shape to use it will present a very attractive appearance.

AMERICAN OPERA.

America Needs Opera Under the Influence of Americans. What we need is American opera given under American influences. This can be brought about only by an elaborate and well-organized system of musical education.

Here and There.

John Brown is home from Northville. It is not sure that he will remain with the Keeley people at Ypsilanti. It is like the plan a little bit, the many satons.—Holly Advertiser.

What is to be thought of a man who will send a punch from a news paper reporter? The just think of the person who is so fast to condemn him for as to steal an umbrella from a beggar? That person lives in Ann Arbor. But justice will scale his eyes some day.—Ann Arbor Courier.

Sh! You! give the whole business away! How came the reporter by that umbrella in the first place? Is it worse for a common every day man to embezzle an umbrella these days than for a newspaper reporter to do so?

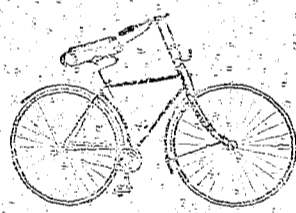

Prof. J. H. Simonds, director of conservatory of music, Santa College, Napa, California, in a recent letter to his father says: "The newspapers and emigration bureaus of this state are very busy trying to make people believe that 'quakes' don't amount to much anyway. They say that all the brick and stone buildings that fell in Sacramento Valley were not properly built, but are strangely silent about the frame ones. The fact remains that Gov. Markham issued over one thousand tents to the people in the valley, and at last accounts the people were living in them, their houses being in an unsafe condition, and in the towns they use the middle of the street for the walk, as buildings that were left standing are liable to fall at the first additional shock. We have had between twenty and thirty in all this time, that is since the series began. We are getting so we can sleep nights again."

The Yarnall Gold Cure at Northville is an institution that the town may well be proud of. Although the Keeley institute moved from that town to Ypsilanti, the former institution is at Northville and will stay—So. Lyon Picket.

The F. & P. M. changed time Sunday and are now about back to their old hour again. The morning train now leave for Detroit at 9:05 and 10:15 respectively. The morning and afternoon trains from Detroit arrive about ten minutes later.

The entertainment by the Primary rooms at the opera-house Saturday night was a most decided success, both financially and otherwise. Everyone was more than pleased and the receipts were over $30. The house was more than well filled.

The Northville ball club, known as Brown's Colts, are again looking for new fields to conquer. They went over to Farmington Monday and downed the club at that place by a score of 12 to 6. The Northville boys have yet to lose their first game.

Peter Michael won the everlasting gratitude of the Knights of Pythias last Sunday by being out on the line of march with buckets of ice cool water, treating the boys as they passed by. It was very refreshing to the almost famished Knights and it was very thoughtful in Mr. Michael.

Don't fail to try the Domestic Sewing Machine before purchasing. Mrs. Clara Allen, agent, over Wilcox's shoe store.

Prof. A. D. Chisholm of the Salem high school has accepted a call as principal of the Newberry schools at a salary of $1,150 per year.

Jas. C. Dean of Nevada City, Cal., sends us two big dollars this week for the Record with the request that we devote more space to elections and politics, especially if it is republican. Jim is a former Northville boy, and is now making his fortune out in the gold country, enjoying a heap of health and happy as a lark.

There will be two officers in attendance at the entertainment at the opera house tomorrow night and next week and if some of the youngsters do not get into trouble it will be because they are better behaved than usual. There will be no more monkey business and the first disturber will be ejected from the hall and a warrant sworn out for his arrest.

William Starrat died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Plunkerton, a few miles northeast of here, Sunday. The funeral occurred from the home Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Jaques officiating. Mr. Starrat was about 70 years of age, was born and grew up at Farmer Village, Seneca county, N. Y., and came to this place eight years ago. His three sons and two daughters are still alive.

As a result of the school entertainment at the opera house Saturday night the teachers deposited twenty-two big elegant dollars in the bank Saturday. This will be applied on an organ for this department of the school which will be purchased this fall. The teachers deserve much credit for their hard, but successful efforts, and the scholars for their good work and hearty co-operation.

Fred Tomlinson and another man had a runaway while going home from this place yesterday. When near John Seino's on the Plymouth road their team became frightened and started to run. The lines broke and Tomlinson in getting out of the wagon had his left arm broken. The other man escaped uninjured. The team was caught near Mead's Mills, safe and sound. L. W. Simmons happened along at the time and conveyed Mr. Tomlinson home.

The appointment of Capt. Frank D. Baldwin by the secretary of war to inspect the state troops in camp this year gives universal satisfaction. Capt. Baldwin is an old Michigan boy, whose home is near Adrian, and he is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Dr. Wallace of this place. He is at present on Gen. Miles' staff at Chicago. It is said of him that he absolutely does not know what fear is. He made a splendid record as a soldier during the war, and has since shown himself a most courageous and valuable infantry fighter.

There are some young "blits" in Northville who are bringing trouble for themselves. Among them are those who persist in making a disturbance and annoying people at every public entertainment, sometimes at churches, unless the marshals are right with their every movement. And another lot are those who are continually marking up the walls in the post-office. One of these days, and the time is evidently drawing near, some of these youngsters will wake up in the cooler. An example made of a few of them may bring others their senses.

W. G. Yerkes met with a bad accident Saturday night. After drawing a bottle of oil for some one and setting it down on the counter he picked up a wood cork placed in the neck and hit it a light blow with his hand. The bottle burst and a portion of it struck the palm of his right hand, severing the superficial arch of the main artery and several smaller ones, and before a surgeon could be found Mr. Yerkes had lost nearly a quart of blood. Dr. Patterson soon responded and assisted by Dr. Burgess, took up the arteries and dressed the wound. Mr. Yerkes is now doing nicely.

Mystic lodge, K. of P., observed the memorial day of the order Sunday afternoon. The lodge, accompanied by fourteen of the Uniformed Knights and the Northville band left for Plymouth soon after twelve o'clock, at which place they joined the Plymouth Knights and Division, the I. O. O. F. and K. O. T. M's, when the whole body, accompanied by citizens in carriages and on foot, marched to the cemetery and decorated the graves of departed brother knights, L. Sackett and Geo. Strang. The I. O. O. F. and the K. O. T. M's also decorated the graves of the deceased members of their order. After the services were the K. P.'s all came to Northville and observed the services at the grave of Knight Star Palman. Capt. Springer of Plymouth had charge of the procession at Plymouth and took command of the escorting divisions at this place in a very creditable manner.

Bliss, the original of this sketch, and who is now engaged to superintend the Northville school, the coming term was born in the thriving old village of Corinth, Vt., March 9, 1863, and in consequence of his being born at just about that time he is therefore now but little past 24 years of age. It is expected that some of the relay records between Grand Rapids and Detroit will be broken. The relay will be ridden by two men each. The principals for the relays as far as selected are as follows: Kalamazoo to Galesburg, nine miles, Will Byington, Kalamazoo; Galesburg to Augusta, six miles, Claude James, Kalamazoo; Augusta to Battle Creek, 10 miles, C. E. Jones, Battle Creek; Battle Creek to Marshall, 12 miles, E. C. Adams, Battle Creek; Marshall to Albion, 13 miles, R. N. Well, Marshall; Albion to Jackson, 19 miles, rider not chosen; Jackson to Chelsea, 17 miles, rider not chosen. Captain J. J. Allen, of the Kalamazoo Wheelmen's Club, will be in charge of the Western division, which will extend from Kalamazoo to Chelsea, a distance of 35 miles, and from that point J. M. Brown will command. The date will be decided upon in a few days.

ANN ARBOR, June 14.—This city has been in a state of excitement for two days occasioned by the laying of a spur track by the Toledo and Ann Arbor & Northern Michigan Railway company on a street here. Yesterday in order to prevent further work the fire department was called out, a special meeting of the council was also called and Hon. J. J. Sawyer appeared as counsel for the railroad. He explained that the whole matter occurred through a misapprehension and he desired to do what was right in the premises. An order was passed notifying the company to take up its track. Men went to work doing what was ordered and the fire department has returned to its quarters.

St. Louis, Mich., June 14.—Mamie Hill, a dining room girl employed at the Harrington house, committed suicide yesterday by taking morphine. She threatened to do so the night before to her lover as they parted after having quarreled, but he thought she was only joking. She was found dying with the empty phial beside her.

Lightning Strikes Two Churches Killing Fifteen Worshipers.

MADRID, June 14.—Terrific thunder storms prevailed in various parts of Spain yesterday and heavy loss of life and injury by lightning is reported. The electricity appeared to pick out the churches as the objects on which to show its power, and, unfortunately, it did so while the services were in progress. At Melias in the province of Orense, the parish church was crowded with worshippers attending mass when the storm burst. Though the peals of thunder were very loud and the flashes of lightning extremely vivid, not much attention was paid to the storm at first. Suddenly a flash of lightning, blinding in its intensity, accompanied by a terrific crash of thunder, caused the worshippers to spring to their feet in fear.

HARRISON AND REID.

THE NAMES WHICH WILL HEAD THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

President Harrison Re-Nominated on the First Ballot.—Hon. Whitelaw Reid, of New York, Ex-Minister to France, Chosen as His Running Mate.

The Last Day.
Rev. Dr. Wayland Hoyt, of the First Baptist church, Minneapolis, offered prayer at the opening of the convention's session of the Republican convention.

The minority of the credentials committee announced that they would not oppose the majority report on the Alabama case and the report was adopted. The minority report was adopted by a big majority. Two delegates each from Indian Territory and Alaska were admitted.

The Michigan delegation was given permission to retire for consultation and only routine business was transacted during their absence. It was decided in the consultation not to present the name of Gen. Alger as a candidate. The vote stood 22 for McKinley and 9 for Harrison. The delegates returned to the convention.

The chairman then announced that the next order of business was the naming of presidential candidates and the roll call was ordered amidst mighty cheers.

The balloting began and when Colorado was reached Senator Wolcott ascended the stage and said: "My Chairman and gentlemen of the convention, The Republicans of the west; sometimes differ with the Republicans of the east as to what is wanted; but on this occasion there is remarkable unanimity between genuine Republicans of the west and genuine Republicans of the east as to whom we used, and his name is Blaine."

The free and honest popular ballot, the just equal representation of all the people, the equal and equal protection under the laws, are the foundation of our Republican institutions, and the party will present its platform to the people and ask for a majority of the vote, guaranteed by the Constitution.

We denounce the continued inhuman outrages perpetrated on American citizens for political reasons in certain southern states of the South.

We favor the extension of our foreign commerce, the restoration of our mercantile marine and the creation of a navy adequate for the protection of our national interests and the honor of our flag; the maintenance of the peace and the prohibition of all interfering alliances with none; and the protection of the rights of our fishermen, and a rejection of all proposals for the annexation of territory in the achievement of the manifest destiny of the republic in its broadest sense.

THE PLATFORM.

The Full Report of Resolutions Committee as Adopted.

The representatives of the Republicans of the United States assembled in general convention on the shores of the Mississippi river, the overflowing and a magnificent republic whose most glorious chapter of history is the record of the Republican party, congratulate their countrymen on the majestic march of the nation under the banner inscribed with the principles of our platform of 1858, vindicated by victory at the polls and prosperity in our fields, workshops and mines, and make the following declaration of principles:

We reaffirm the American doctrine of protection. We are opposed to the free trade and tariff system which has been maintained in the United States, except insofar as it is necessary to protect our industries and our agriculture from competition with the products of American labor there should be levied duties and duties discriminating between goods produced at home.

We assert that the prices of manufactured articles should be determined by the laws of supply and demand, and not by the operations of the tariff act of 1890.

We denounce the efforts of the Democratic majority of the House of Representatives to restrict our tariff laws by increasing as is manifestly the case, the duties on raw materials and raw wool, the chief products of a number of states, and we ask the people for their judgment thereon.

We insist to the success of the Republican policy of reciprocity, under which our export trade and our import trade are increased and our markets have been opened for the products of our farms and workshops.

We reaffirm the policy of our platform of 1858, and we demand that the tariff be so adjusted as to protect our industries and our agriculture from competition with the products of American labor there should be levied duties and duties discriminating between goods produced at home.

We demand that every citizen of the United States be allowed to vote in the election of his representatives in all public elections, and that the ballot shall be counted and returned as cast, and that the electors shall be chosen by the people, and that the electors shall be chosen by the people, and that the electors shall be chosen by the people.

We favor the extension of our foreign commerce, the restoration of our mercantile marine and the creation of a navy adequate for the protection of our national interests and the honor of our flag; the maintenance of the peace and the prohibition of all interfering alliances with none; and the protection of the rights of our fishermen, and a rejection of all proposals for the annexation of territory in the achievement of the manifest destiny of the republic in its broadest sense.

OVER THE DARK RIVER.

FOURTEEN SAILORS SUDDENLY SAIL FOR THE OTHER SHORE.

Explosion in the Mare Island Navy Yard Blows the Shell Rooms to Pieces with Fatal Results.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—An explosion at Mare Island navy yards yesterday occurred in the shell room. Acting Gunner, Hittinger, of the cruiser Boston, and 13 others were instantly killed and three seriously injured, two of whom died in a short time. The shell rooms at once took fire. The following is a list of the killed:

- T. D. GEORGE HITSINGER, gunner, U. S. N.
- CAL SUNDAR, gunner's mate.
- THOMAS SARGENT, chief gunner's mate.
- WILLIAM HEGGER, apprentice.
- A. KERRILL, seaman.
- C. W. SMITH, landsman.
- WILLIAM WASHINGTON, seaman.
- L. EDGAR, seaman.
- W. OSTLANDER, apprentice.
- H. JOOS, apprentice.
- WILLIAM RUSH, seaman.
- JOHNSON, seaman.
- R. KANEVSKY, seaman.
- J. H. HOLLIS, apprentice.
- J. B. BRISCOE, the one surviving man was taken to the hospital and given the best of treatment.

The explosion occurred in the shell room, in which 15 men were working. There was no warning and no chance to escape. The terrific report which could be heard for miles, conveyed to the men in the other parts of the yards the first news that an accident had taken place. The sound caused all eyes to be turned to the shell works. The building was shattered and pieces of iron were hurled upward and outward in all directions. Instantly flames broke out and commenced to complete the demolition that the explosion had already started. Men from the yards at once rushed to the scene, hopeful of finding their companions still alive.

The mangled corpses told the tale of the awful catastrophe. A groan under a pile of debris, however, showed that there was still life. In the heat of the flames the brave rescuers carried out the three men who had not been instantly killed. Two were so horribly mangled that they died in a very short time. The third was taken to the hospital. The 12 bodies, or the pieces of them, were then collected, and with the utmost difficulty identified, as they had been torn in many cases limb from limb.

Suddenly a flash of lightning, blinding in its intensity, accompanied by a terrific crash of thunder, caused the worshippers to spring to their feet in fear.

The utmost confusion prevailed. Finally, when order was restored, the congregation were horrified to find that 10 of their number had been struck by the lightning and instantly killed, and that 25 others had been seriously injured. When this became generally known the people were panic stricken and rushed from the church into the pelting storm.

An almost similar scene occurred at Mucientes in the province of Valladolid. The church in that village was also struck by lightning. Fire of the worshippers were killed and 10 injured. At Burgos, capital of the province of that name, considerable damage was done to the famous Old cathedral by the lightning. The Burgos Cathedral is one of the oldest buildings in Spain, having been founded in 1221 and finished in 1507. Nobody in the cathedral was hurt.

LAUGH A LITTLE BIT.

Here's a motto, just your fit: Laugh a little bit. When you think you're trouble-fit, Laugh a little bit.

ON THE BAY

Leading her pretty bay a few hundred feet from the road, then to a little hillock Edna Grant flung one arm carelessly around her horse's neck and gazed slowly about.

Edna was a gay, spirited girl, but at times, in solitude, her love of nature threw a glow of sombre enthusiasm over her face instead of the usual levity.

Edna closed her eyes, pressed her hand over them and leaned in a subdued attitude with her face on her horse's neck.

Life—Death! Life—Death! Such is the burden of human breath, came in the deep bass of a manly voice, so near that she started violently and opened her eyes.

Who will nevermore trouble you, trouble you? I wish you would follow his example then," said she, spitefully.

Edna's eyes gleamed maliciously as she thought what a triumph she would have over her aunt when she announced that the doctor was as little in love as Alphonso.

Edna said the lady, much more gravely than was her wont, "it pains me to hear you speak so of the doctor. I know no man more truly honorable, intelligent and ambitious.

"Comparatively young," said the still unappeased girl; "he is double my age."

her. "I think I love Alphonso and he wildly adores me. Just think of those lovely, luminous eyes of his and that darling curly mustache. He is really irresistible."

"You are sweet child, you are worthy of the love of the best man living, but I am somewhat of a physiognomist, and I do not feel the enthusiastic confidence in your cavalier that I could admire.

"Put him to the test, Edna, and if he proves true, then I will be the first to interest myself in his advancement."

"How shall I do it?" questioned the girl. "I will follow your advice, but for my own part I will not wrong him by the shadow of a doubt."

"No—I think not," said he, pretending to hesitate, but the quick gleam of interest that leaped to his eyes belied his tone.

"I am rejoiced to hear you take it so lightly," returned her aunt tenderly. "I think your vanity rather than your heart is hurt."

"I will do it just to satisfy you," answered Edna indifferently, though I have as little faith in him as in his medicine."

"I think I can help you if you are equal to all the requirements; for I know a person who needs a companion."

"What would be necessary?" asked Edna, in a voice fairly trembling with suppressed mirth and a little anger.

"Comparatively young," said the still unappeased girl; "he is double my age."

strength is that you love him a little. He held out his hand to her with a look of love so intense and passionate that Edna almost staggered before it.

The man stood patient and motionless. Minute after minute passed, till at last Edna moved. Advancing, she placed both hands in his, and with a tender smile illuminating her face, whispered:

OUR SOUTHERN NEIGHBORS. Civilization, Development and Culture Compare Well With Ours.

The South American systems of education have been framed upon the plan of ours, and in several of them even more radical measures have been adopted to increase the intelligence of the people.

At her side stood a handsome, stylishly dressed youth who gazed at her in a rapt, ecstatic way and turned his music with an air delectable in the extreme.

"I had ever tell you about auntie's queer will?" "No—I think not," said he, pretending to hesitate, but the quick gleam of interest that leaped to his eyes belied his tone.

"I am rejoiced to hear you take it so lightly," returned her aunt tenderly. "I think your vanity rather than your heart is hurt."

THE YEAR. How the Present Calendar Was Arranged and Adopted.

Originally the Romans are said to have had a year of ten months but in the time of their kings they adopted a lunar year of 355 days divided into twelve months with an extra month occasionally inserted.

To remedy the trouble Pope Gregory XIII ordained that ten days should be deducted from the year 1582 by calling what would have been reckoned the 5th of October the 15th of October, 1582.

It is this way the difference between the civil and the natural year will not amount to a day in 3,000 years.

Two men were watching a parade of uniformed men from the window of a hotel.

"I understand that vaccination is going out of practice and is not so popular as it was."

It is a fact that the production of Ceylon tea has increased from 100,000 pounds in 1875 to 68,000,000 pounds in 1891.

A tree was cut in the Puget Sound forest the other day, from which seven cuts were taken without a knot, their combined length being 179 feet.

Surgical operations are very successful in Japan, and the healing process is rapid, owing probably to the abstemiousness of the people from alcohol and their not being flesh eaters.

Mrs. Young Husband: "Dear you will have to give me $10 extra this week." Mr. Young Husband: "Why, Clara! Did I not give you the necessary amount $18? That is $8 a day."

"How does it happen that the Rev. Worldly performs the marriage ceremony for so many old maids?"

The emperor and empress of Russia, we are told, not merely superintend, but they direct the education of their children.
