

(No) Marker # 421

Previous transcriptions have included markers that can no longer be found. For the most part, it is unknown whether these stones were stolen, whether they are currently buried, or whether the bodies have been removed from the cemetery along with the markers. The following is a list of the gravestones we were unable to find:

- Booth, unknown
Mar. 11, 1872
- Clarkson, Willie R.
d. 15 Aug 1872, Age 9 yrs & 6 mos.
[see Marker 167]
- Kellogg, Russel E.
Son of E.P. & S.L., d. Apr. 1, 1852, Age 4 mos, 10 das.
[see Marker 87]
- Nichols, Charlotte J.
Wife of Z.B., "Mother", d. Dec. 28, 1846 [1876?], Age 26 yrs, 11 mos, 25 das.
[see Marker 332]
- Northrop, Frankie
Son of B.A. & A.E., d. Jun. 23, 1880, Age 13 mos.
[Frankie currently has a different gravestone at Rural Hill Cemetery in Northville. His body must have been removed from Oakwood Cemetery at some point to join the rest of his family.]
